AWARD PART-II

1. The Government of India, Ministry of Labour by its Order No. L-39012/2/2001/IR(M) dated 14-05-2001 in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section 2(A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 have referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:

"Whether the action of the management of Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust in removing Sh. Mahesh M. Kumbhar from employment w.e.f. 24-11-98 is legal and justified? If not, what relief the workman is entitled to?"

2. To support the subject matter referred in the reference second party filed Claim Statement at Ex-6 stating that, he worked with first party as Technician w.e.f. 5-11-90 till he was terminated w.e.f. 24-11-1998. The reason given by first party behind termination was of absenteeism which is not just and proper. Punishment awarded of dismissal for absenteeism is harsh punishment and against regulations framed more precisely regulation No. 5 to 9 suggests minor punishment to such type of absenteeism. However punishment of dismissal is major one and absenteeism cannot be ground to dismiss the second party.

3. He further stated that, evidence placed by him of his sickness was not considered by Inquiry Officer. Enquiry was not fair and proper, the findings were perverse. So it is submitted that, dismissal order be set aside with direction to first party to reinstate with backwages and continuity of service.

4. This is disputed by first party by filing reply Ex-7 stating that, absenteeism noted of second party is not legal one. Absenteeism was of 95 days right from 9-3-98 to 11-6-98. Second party remained absent without intimation and without conveying the cause of his absenteeism. The absenteeism of more than 10 days is treated as a misconduct and invite enquiry on which first party can take action of dismissal if the charges of misconduct are proved. It is to be noted that, after serving chargesheet enquiry was conducted. Even prior to that notice dated 29-4-98 was given asking him to report on duty within 7 days still he did not report on duty nor conveyed cause behind absenteeism as well as produce any documents. Even number of days were given and intimated to second party about enquiry, he did not take note of it, or reported for enquiry and participate in the enquiry. As second party did not co-operate with the Inquiry Officer, no option left with it but to proceed exparte and accordingly, enquiry was concluded holding him guilty of misconduct about absenteeism. Opportunity was given to file appeal and after hearing that, order of dismissal was confirmed. As no reason was assigned, and no evidence produced by second party about his absenteeism, it is stated that, decision taken by first party of dismissal is just and it did not require to be interfered.

5. Preliminary issue regarding fairness of enquiry and perversity of findings was decided by passing part-I Award on 22-12-2006 observing enquiry not fair and proper and findings perverse. It was also directed to first party to lead evidence to justify its action. So the issue of whether the action taken by the management is justified is now taken for consideration which I answer as follows:

Issues	Findings
(iii) Whether the action of the management of Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust in removing Sh. Mahesh M. Kumbhar from employment w.e.f. 24-11-1998 is legal and justified?	Yes
(iv) What relief the workman is entitled to?	No

Reasons

Issue Nos. 3 & 4:-

6. In this reference second party challenged the termination order dated 24-11-1998. The base of the order was absenteeism of the workman. It was alleged by first party that concerned workman remained absent unauthorised from 9-3-1998 till 11-6-1998. The charge of unauthorised leave of 95 days was leveled against concerned workman. The stand taken by second party is that, due to sickness he unable to report on duty. On that charge sheet was served on second party to justify his absenteeism. Though number of opportunity was given to concerned workman to attend enquiry and to justify his absenteeism in the said enquiry, admittedly he remained absent and Inquiry Officer concluded concerned workman was unauthorisedly absent for 95 days from 9-3-1998. On that, decision was taken by first party of dismissal.

7. While deciding part-I award looking the opportunity not availed by concerned workman in attending the enquiry and in justifying his absenteeism, I observed said finding of the Inquiry Officer is perverse and enquiry conducted since was exparte, was not completed by following principles of natural justice.

8. So, I feel opportunity require to give to first party to justify its action of termination as well as to the second party workman to show how decision taken by first party of dismissal is not just and proper.

9. On that, first party examined its witness, Wani by filing affidavit in lieu of examination-in-chief Ex-25 who states that, concerned workman remained absent unauthorisedly for 95 days from 9-3-1998 to 11-6-1998. He states that, he informed second party's absenteeism to the Manager (Bulk Terminal) by his report dated 7-4-1998. He states that, except Medical Certificate dated 9-3-1998, which was received on 2-4-1998, no other medical certificate or evidence was submitted by concerned workman. He states that, there is a provision of grant of sick leave in respect of permanent employees. Second party did not apply in that format by sending medical certificate. He also did not produce medical certificate issued by Authorised Medical Attendant. According to him Authorised Medical Attendant for the first party is defined in the Regulations of the first party. Said was not complied by the second party workman. It is further stated that, first party has full fledged Medical Department where free medical treatment is provided to permanent employees. Second party did not approach the Medical Department of first party and took medical treatment. The medical certificate supplied by second party dated 9-3-1998 does not disclose for what period, concerned workman is advised to take rest and what sort of treatment was given to the concerned workman. Though opportunity was given to concerned workman, he did not explain the nature of absenteeism or nature of his sickness and gravity of it. On that, showcause notice was also given but concerned workman did not reply it. In the cross, this witness admits that medical certificate dated 9-3-1998 was received mentioning he was suffering from 'Malaria'. He admits that, first party has not replied said, medical certificate. He admits that, first party has not enquired the sickness of the second party and on that evidence was closed by the first party. Against that no evidence is led by second party.

10. First party filed Written Arguments at Ex-26 with citations. Second party submitted his written arguments at Ex-29.

11. So the evidence which is referred above is the only evidence of first party witness Mr. Wani who tried to point out that, medical certificate though received dated 9-3-1998, mentioning patient suffering from Malaria, did not disclose the advice of doctor of taking rest and days for which such rest is required. Besides he states that said certificate does not disclose, what sort of treatment was given and how much period patient required bed rest? Besides he states that, there is free medical facility available to permanent employees in the establishment of first party but said was not utilised by concerned workman. On that, second party is silent. He did not step into witness box this time also to explain why he simply rely on medical certificate dated 9-3-1998 which does not disclose days of rest advised by doctor. Even he has not explained why he did not examine the doctor who issued medical certificate. He has not explained as to why he did not approach the medical facility made available by first party to employee of his type. Even he has not explained why he remained absent and has not explained to whom he informed and through which manner? He has not explained how his leave can be authorised leave? All these questions are not replied by concerned workman.

12. In the written arguments submitted at Ex-26, first party's advocate has referred previous record of the concerned workman stating that, he remained absent on last occasion for 173 days from 1-3-1997 to 21-8-1997 that time, charge sheet was served and enquiry was conducted. During that period, concerned workman gave undertaking that, he will improve his attendance. On that he was punished by withholding his one year increment. However the incident under the reference shows that there is no improvement in his behavior and attendance of the concerned workman. Again he remained absent for 95 days from 9-3-1998 to 11-6-1998. According to him, the past record of concerned workman is of that type and when even he was convicted for that he did not show any improvement. So that such person is not entitled for any leniency who is habitual absentee. He also referred to decision given in Delhi Transport Corporation V/s. Sardar Singh reported in 2004 LLR 953 where it was observed that, when period of absenteeism is admitted, the onus is on the workman to show his absence was for such and such cause. Here admittedly concerned workman has not shown such cause for his absenteeism. The only medical certificate he submitted is dated 9-3-1998 which is also not proved by examining the doctor who issued certificate. Non-examination of signatory of the medical certificate cannot be read in the evidence as per decision given by Hon'ble High Court, Mumbai in case of Vermon Lobo V/s. Himalayan Drug Co., Mumbai published in 1999 Lab IC 1659 and decision given in Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation V/s. Dashrath Satyawar Gawade & anr. published in 2006 III CLR 559 as well as on the decision given in case of Mahesh Kumar Narottambhai Kantharia V/s. Administrative Officer, Nagar Prathmik Shikshan Samiti, Surat reported in 2002 (92) FLR 215. He also place reliance on the decision given in S.K. Awasthy V/s. M.R. Bhope, Presiding Officer, 1st Labour Court reported in 1994 (68) FLR 841 where it was observed that, when workman who failed to examine himself as witness, lead to draw adverse inference against his case. In the instant case, second party did not step into witness box to show that how termination is not just and proper against this type of absenteeism? He also place reliance on citation published in 2008 I CLR 978 where Apex Court in deciding case of L&T Komatsu Ltd. V/s. N. Udaykumar observed that, management is not supposed to show leniency in case of regular absenteeism. Even same view is taken by Apex Court while deciding case of Delhi Transport Corporation V/s. Sardar Singh observing that, regular absenteeism is nothing but negligence of the workman.

13. About 'authority to punish', case of second party is that, Deputy Chairman has no power to issue termination order. First party has pointed out that, there are rules and as per that Deputy Chairman is empowered to issue termination order as per Regulation 10. Second party simply state that, Deputy Chairman is not empowered to issue termination order, but he has not made out case, who is the competent authority to act as disciplinary authority?

13. So if we consider all these coupled with case made out above, I am of opinion that management succeeded in showing that, concerned workman remained absent unauthorisedly. Even management succeeded in showing that, second party could not justify his absenteeism. When second party has not justified his absenteeism and when his past record also shows that, he was convicted for absenteeism previously, lead me to conclude that decision taken by first party is just and proper and does not require any interference. I also conclude that, in that premises second party is not entitled to any relief. So I answer these issues to that effect and passes the following order.

AWARD

Following reference was received from the Ministry of Labour, Government of India, vide No. L-30011/29/2004 [IR (M)] Dated 01-06-2004, which reads as under :

"Whether the action of the management of Oil & Natural Gas Corporation Ltd., Tel Bhawan, Dehradun in terminating the services of Shri Khima Ram S/o Sh. Mahi Ram, Ex-Contingent Worker (unskilled) w.e.f. 01-10-2003 without any notice and without any payment of retrenchment compensation, is illegal and unjustified? If so, to what relief the concerned workman is entitled and from which date?"

The notices of the reference were issued to the parties who appeared through their counsel. The workman filed the statement of his claim and the Management filed their written statement opposing the claim of the workman. The workman filed rejoinder and supported his pleadings with his affidavit, whereas the Management filed the affidavit of their Personnel Administrative Officer, Shri A.K. Sharma. Both the workman and Mr. A.K. Sharma, the witness of the Management, also came in the witness box. The parties also placed on record photo copies of a number of documents including the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana in the case of Sandeep Kumar Versus Municipal Corporation, Faridabad and that of the Presiding Officer, CGIT-I, Chandigarh.

Stated in brief the claim of the workman is that the workman had joined service of the Management on 1-12-2000 although he was given the appointment letter on 10-7-2001 only. He served the Management up to 1-10-2003 without break and thereby putting more than 240 days continuous service and was getting monthly wages @ Rs. 3900. That the Management vide their No. FB/BM/RSN-2/Misc/2003 Dated 01-10-2003 retrenched the services of the workman without paying him compensation and wages for the notice period and without issuing him the notice. Thus, the Management violated the provision of Section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, to be called for short the "Act". That the Management started new exploratory drilling at Dangar District Bilaspur (HP) at a distance of 50 Kms. from the site where the workman was working before his retrenchment. The workman being an experienced and trained person could better serve the Management as compared to the fresh appointee and they instead engaged fresh hands and thereby, violated the provisions of Section 25-H of the Act. For these reasons the disengagement of the workman was illegal, bad in law and against the principle of natural justice. It is also the claim of the workman that he is entitled to be reinstated in service with all service benefits, such as, continuity of service, back wages and other benefits besides the costs of the litigation. He has supported his claim with documents, photocopies of which are placed on record as Annexures W-1 and W-2.

The claim of the workman has been opposed by the Management. It is the preliminary objection of the Management that since the engagement of the workman was for the execution of a particular job with a clear stipulation that after the completion of the job, the services of the workman shall stand terminated and the workman was bound by the terms of letter of his appointment, therefore, the reference is not maintainable. Moreover, since the retrenchment of the workman was affected on the completion of the project, therefore, the Management did not violate any provisions of the Act. As such, there is no dispute between the parties in terms of the Act. On merits it is the claim of the Management that the drilling at Dangar has commenced now as it could not be done because of non-shifting of the rig due to the agitation of the workmen. That the workman was engaged on need basis as daily rated workman and was paid higher wages for working 12 hours a day. Since the nature of the work was not permanent and could last up to the drilling operation, therefore, the work was shifted to another place after closing from the earlier project. The appointment letter was issued to the workman on the indulgence of the Conciliation Officer and in terms of that order the workman had accepted the job. No doubt he worked for more than 240 days but his engagement was regulated by the terms of letter of his appointment. The workman was paid wages @ Rs. 150 per day, which was higher than the minimum wages and the same included for the weekly off days. The termination of the workman was in terms of the letter of the appointment, therefore, the same was not retrenchment and for that reasons also the workman was not entitled to retrenchment compensation, notice or wages for notice period. The Management did not violate any provisions of the Act, and the claim made by the workman is unjustified. It is further their claim that the workman had no vested right of employment on the proposed exploratory drilling site at Dangar, since it was a new project. They have further denied the claim of the workman that he is a skilled and trained labourer. Their submission is that as per the rules, the Management has adopted the policy to engage Contractors for providing manpower. According to them, the claim of the workman is not maintainable and the reference should be answered against him.

The workman filed rejoinder but did not add anything new except that the letter of appointment cannot override the provisions of the Act. The workman has denied the claim made by the Management and reiterated whatever he has stated in his statement of claim.

From their pleadings it is clear that the parties have admitted facts to a large extent. It is admitted that the workman was engaged by the Management and that he served the Management for 240 days till 1-10-2003 when his services were terminated by the Management without giving him notice or wages in lieu of notice period or retrenchment compensation. The Management has taken the plea that the termination of the services of the workman was affected in terms of his letter of appointment, the contents of which are not denied by the workman. The letter of engagement of the workman dated 10-7-2001 had been placed on record as Annexure W/2, by the workman. It reads that the workman, Khima Ram, is offered an opportunity for employment on the terms and conditions as a term based contingent workman. It further reads that the workman is being engaged in their project at Sundernagar which is a exploratory drilling project and which can be bound up at any time depending upon its results. It further reads that the engagement of the workman shall be for the period the activities remain in operation at Sundernagar and on the completion of the work his services shall be terminated without further notice. The letter of appointment further says that the workman shall be paid Rs. 150 per day for the work done inclusive of wages for the weekly rest. As per clause 3, if the requirement of the job ceases before the expiry of the stipulated period or the workman wants to leave the job any time before that, one month's notice or wages for one month in lieu thereof will be paid by either of the side. The workman was also to be governed by the standing orders besides the terms of the appointment order and he was given 10 days time to join the job.

A plain reading of the letter of appointment, the existence of which is not denied rather workman has relied there upon, clearly shows that the engagement of the workman was for Sundernagar exploratory drilling project and as per the terms and conditions of the engagement letter the services of the workman were to be taken only up to the time the drilling activities of the project continued at Sundernagar. The workman himself had admitted that his services were terminated when the Management bound up the project at Sundernagar. As per the terms and conditions of the engagement letter, the workman was not entitled to a month's notice or wages for the notice period except in case the workman was to be disengaged during the period the activities of the Project continued or the workman himself wanted to leave the job in between and in that case one month's notice to be given by either of the side or was to pay wages for the notice period. That contingency did not take place in the case of the workman as he continued working for the Management till the activities of the Project continued at Sundernagar and he was disengaged only when the project at Sundernagar was bound up. Thus, there is no merit in the claim of the workman that since he had put in more than 240 days continued service 12 months preceding the date of termination of his services, therefore, he was entitled to one month's notice or wages for the notice period and the retrenchment compensation and that the Management admittedly did not do so, therefore, disengagement of the workman was bad in law. In this view of mine I rely upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court reported as JT 2003(3) SC 436 in the case S.M. Nilajkar and Ors. Versus Telecom District Manager, Karnataka.

The workman has taken another ground to challenge the disengagement. It is his claim that the Management had started another Project at Dangar about 50 K. Ms from Sundernagar and the workman being a trained skilled labourer, therefore, he had prior right to be taken on that project and the Management having failed to give opportunity to him, therefore, also they violated the provisions of Section 25-H of the Act. In my opinion this plea of the workman also does not have any merit for the reasons that the Project at Dangar was a separate and independent Project although that of the Management. Secondly, the workman has not shown as to when the Project at Dangar had started. Whether it had started before the issuance of the demand notice by the workman? The witness of the Management denied that the drilling operation at Dangar (Bilaspur) was carried out after Sundernagar immediately. The workman himself nowhere showed as to when the Project at Dangar had started. Thus, his claim for re-engagement in the Dangar Project is also not justified. Also this aspect could not be gone into since it is beyond the scope of the reference in hand.

For whatever has been discussed above, I am of the opinion that the workman has no case and he has failed to prove that the termination of his services with effect from 01-10-2003 was illegal and unjustified. His claim for re-engagement in Dangar Project is beyond the scope of the reference under hand. Therefore, he is not entitled to any relief. The reference is answered against him and the award is passed. Let a copy of this award be sent to the appropriate Government for necessary action and the file be consigned to records after due completion.

It is admitted that the workman was engaged by the Management and that he served the Management for 240 days till 1-10-2003 when his services were terminated by the Management without giving him notice or wages in lieu of notice period or retrenchment compensation. The Management has taken the plea that the termination of the services of the workman was affected in terms of his letter of appointment, the contents of which are not denied by the workman. The letter of engagement of the workman dated 10-7-2001 has been placed on record as Annexure W/2, by the workman.

It reads that the workman, Gopal Chand, is offered an opportunity for employment on the terms and conditions as a term based contingent workman. It further reads that the workman is being engaged in their project at Sundernagar which is a exploratory drilling project and which can be bound up at any time depending upon its results. It further reads that the engagement of the workman shall be for the period the activities remain in operation at Sundernagar and on the completion of the work his services shall be terminated without further notice. The letter of appointment further says that the workman shall be paid Rs. 150 per day for the work done inclusive of wages for the weekly rest. As per clause 3, if the requirement of the job ceases before the expiry of the stipulated period or the workman wants to leave the job any time before that, one month's notice or wages for one month in lieu thereof will be paid by either of the side. The workman was also to be governed by the standing orders besides the terms of the appointment order and he was given 10 days time to join the job.

A plain reading of the letter of appointment, the existence of which is not denied rather workman has relied there upon, clearly shows that the engagement of the workman was for Sundernagar exploratory drilling project and as per the terms and conditions of the engagement letter the services of the workman were to be taken only up to the time the drilling activities of the project continued at Sundernagar. The workman himself had admitted that his services were terminated when the Management bound up the project at Sundernagar. As per the terms and conditions of the engagement letter, the workman was not entitled to a month's notice or wages for the notice period except in case the workman was to be disengaged during the period the activities of the Project continued or the workman himself wanted to leave the job in between and in that case one month's notice to be given by either of the side or was to pay wages for the notice period. That contingency did not take place in the case of the workman as he continued working for the Management till the activities of the Project continued at Sundernagar and he was disengaged only when the project at Sundernagar was bound up. Thus, there is no merit in the claim of the workman that since he had put in more than 240 days continued service 12 months preceding the date of termination of his services, therefore, he was entitled to one month's notice or wages for the notice period and the retrenchment compensation and that the Management admittedly did not do so, therefore, disengagement of the workman was bad in law. In this view of mine I rely upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court reported as JT 2003(3) SC 436 in the case S.M. Nilajkar and Ors. Versus Telecom District Manager, Karnataka.

The workman has taken another ground to challenge the disengagement. It is his claim that the Management had started another Project at Dangar about 50 Kms. from Sundernagar and the workman being a trained skilled labourer, therefore, he had prior right to be taken on that project and the Management having failed to give opportunity to him, therefore, also they violated the provisions of Section 25-H of the Act. In my opinion this plea of the workman also does not have any merit for the reasons that the Project at Dangar was a separate and independent Project although that of the Management. Secondly, the workman has not shown as to when the Project at Dangar had started. Whether it had started before the issuance of the demand notice by the workman? The witness of the Management denied that the drilling operation at Dangar (Bilaspur) was carried out after Sundernagar immediately. The workman himself nowhere showed as to when the Project at Dangar had started. Thus, his claim for re-engagement in the Dangar Project is also not justified. Also this aspect could not be gone into since it is beyond the scope of the reference in hand.

For whatever has been discussed above, I am of the opinion that the workman has no case and he has failed to prove that the termination of his services with effect from 01-10-2003 was illegal and unjustified. His claim for re-engagement in Dangar Project is beyond the scope of the reference under hand. Therefore, he is not entitled to any relief. The reference is answered against him and the award is passed. Let a copy of this award be sent to the appropriate Government for necessary action and the file be consigned to records after due completion.

Following reference was received from the Ministry of Labour, Government of India, vide No. L-30011/18/2004-IR(M) dated 2-6-2004, which reads as under :

“Whether the action of the management of Oil and Natural Gas Corporation Ltd., Tel Bhawan, Dehradun in terminating the services of Sh. Himmat Ram S/o Sh. Katku Ram, Ex-Contingent Worker (unskilled) w.e.f. 1-10-2003 without any notice and without any payment of retrenchment compensation, is illegal and unjustified? If so, to what relief the concerned workman is entitled and from which date?”

The notices of the reference were issued to the parties who appeared through their counsel. The workman filed the statement of his claim and the Management filed their written statement opposing the claim of the workman. The workman filed rejoinder and supported his pleadings with his affidavit, whereas the Management filed the affidavit of their Personnel Administrative Officer, Shri A.K. Sharma. Both the workman and Mr. A.K. Sharma, the witness of the Management, also came in the witness box. The parties also placed on record photo copies of a number of documents including the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana in the case of Sandeep Kumar Versus Municipal Corporation, Faridabad and that of the Presiding Officer, CGIT-I, Chandigarh.

Stated in brief the claim of the workman is that the workman had joined service of the Management on 1-12-2000 although he was given the appointment letter on 10-7-2001 only. He served the Management up to 1-10-2003 without break and thereby putting more than 240 days continues service and was getting monthly wages @ Rs. 3900/-. That the Management vide their No. FB/BM/RSN-2/Misc/2003 Dated 01-10-2003 retrenched the services of the workman without paying him compensation and wages for the notice period and without issuing him the notice. Thus, the Management violated the provisions of Section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, to be called for short the "Act". That the Management started new exploratory drilling at Dangar District Bilaspur (HP) at a distance of 50 K.Ms from the site where the workman was working before his retrenchment. The workman being an experienced and trained person could better serve the Management as compared to the fresh appointee and they instead engaged fresh hands and thereby violated the provisions of Section 25-H of the Act. For these reasons the disengagement of the workman was illegal, bad in law and against the principle of natural justice. It is also the claim of the workman that he is entitled to be reinstated in service with all service benefits, such as, continuity of service, back wages and other benefits besides the costs of the litigation. He has supported his claim with documents, photocopies of which are placed on record as Annexure W/1 and W/2.

The claim of the workman has been opposed by the Management. It is the preliminary objection of the Management that since the engagement of the workman was for the execution of a particular job with a clear stipulation that after the completion of the job, the services of the workman shall stand terminated and the workman was bound by the terms of letter of his appointment, therefore, the reference is not maintainable. Moreover, since the retrenchment of the workman was affected on the completion of the project, therefore, the Management did not violate any provisions of the Act. As such, there is no dispute between the parties in terms of the Act. On merits it is the claim of the Management that the drilling at Dangar has commenced now as it could not be done because of non-shifting of the rig due to the agitation of the workmen. That the workman was engaged on need basis as daily rated workman and was paid higher wages for working 12 hours a day. Since the nature of the work was not permanent and could last up to the drilling operation, therefore, the work was shifted to another place after closing from the earlier project. The appointment letter was issued to the workman on the indulgence of the Conciliation Officer and in terms of that order the workman had accepted the job. No doubt he worked for more than 240 days but his engagement was regulated by the terms of letter of his appointment. The workman was paid wages @ Rs. 150/- per day, which was higher than the minimum wages and the same included for the weekly off days. The termination of the workman was in terms of the letter of the appointment, therefore, the same was not retrenchment and for that reasons also the workman was not entitled to retrenchment compensation, notice or wages for notice period. The Management did not violate any provisions of the Act, and the claim made by the workman is unjustified. It is further their claim that the workman had no vested right of employment on the proposed exploratory drilling site at Dangar, since it was a new project. They have further denied the claim of the workman that he is a skilled and trained labourer. Their submission is that as per the rules, the Management has adopted the policy to engage Contractors for providing manpower. According to them, the claim of the workman is not maintainable and the reference should be answered against him.

The workman filed rejoinder but did not added anything new except that the letter of appointment cannot override the provisions of the Act. The workman has denied the claim made by the Management and reiterated whatever he has stated in his statement of claim.

From their pleadings it is clear that the parties have admitted facts to a large extent. It is admitted that the workman was engaged by the Management and that he served the Management for 240 days till 1-10-2003 when his services were terminated by the Management without giving him notice or wages in lieu of notice period or retrenchment compensation. The Management has taken the plea that the termination of the services of the workman was affected in terms of his letter of appointment, the contents of which are not denied by the workman. The notices of the reference were issued to the parties who appeared through their counsel. The workman filed the statement of his claim and the Management filed their written statement opposing the claim of the workman. The workman filed rejoinder and supported his pleadings with his affidavit, whereas the Management filed the affidavit of their Personnel Administrative Officer, Shri A.K. Sharma. Both the workman and Mr. A.K. Sharma, the witness of the Management, also came in the witness box. The parties also placed on record photocopies of a number of documents including the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana in the case of Sandeep Kumar Versus Municipal Corporation, Faridabad and that of the Presiding Officer, CGIT-I, Chandigarh.

Stated in brief the claim of the workman is that the workman had joined service of the Management on 1-12-2000 although he was given the appointment letter on 10-7-2001 only. He served the Management up to 1-10-2003 without break and thereby putting more than 240 days continues service and was getting monthly wages

@ Rs. 3900/-. That the Management vide their No. FB/BM/RSN-2/Misc/2003 Dated 01-10-2003 retrenched the services of the workman without paying him compensation and wages for the notice period and without issuing him the notice. Thus, the Management violated the provisions of Section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, to be called for short the "Act". That the Management started new exploratory drilling at Dangar District Bilaspur (HP) at a distance of 50 K.Ms from the site where the workman was working before his retrenchment. The workman being an experienced and trained person could better serve the Management as compared to the fresh appointee and they instead engaged fresh hands and thereby violated the provisions of Section 25-H of the Act. For these reasons the disengagement of the workman was illegal, bad in law and against the principle of natural justice. It is also the claim of the workman that he is entitled to be reinstated in service with all service benefits, such as, continuity of service, back wages and other benefits besides the costs of the litigation. He has supported his claim with documents, photocopies of which are placed on record as Annexure W/1 and W/2.

The claim of the workman has been opposed by the Management. It is the preliminary objection of the Management that since the engagement of the workman was for the execution of a particular job with a clear stipulation that after the completion of the job, the services of the workman shall stand terminated and the workman was bound by the terms of letter of his appointment, therefore, the reference is not maintainable. Moreover, since the retrenchment of the workman was affected on the completion of the project, therefore, the Management did not violate any provisions of the Act. As such, there is no dispute between the parties in terms of the Act. On merits it is the claim of the Management that the drilling at Dangar has commenced now as it could not be done because of non-shifting of the rig due to the agitation of the workmen. That the workman was engaged on need basis as daily rated workman and was paid higher wages for working 12 hours a day. Since the nature of the work was not permanent and could last up to the drilling operation, therefore, the work was shifted to another place after closing from the earlier project. The appointment letter was issued to the workman on the indulgence of the Conciliation Officer and in terms of that order the workman had accepted the job. No doubt he worked for more than 240 days but his engagement was regulated by the terms of letter of his appointment. The workman was paid wages @ Rs. 150/- per day, which was higher than the minimum wages and the same included for the weekly off days. The termination of the workman was in terms of the letter of the appointment, therefore, the same was not retrenchment and for that reasons also the workman was not entitled to retrenchment compensation, notice or wages for notice period. The Management did not violate any provisions of the Act, and the claim made by the workman is unjustified.

It is further their claim that the workman had no vested right of employment on the proposed exploratory drilling site at Dangar, since it was a new project. They have further denied the claim of the workman that he is a skilled and trained labourer. Their submission is that as per the rules, the Management has adopted the policy to engage Contractors for providing manpower. According to them, the claim of the workman is not maintainable and the reference should be answered against him.

The workman filed rejoinder but did not add anything new except that the letter of appointment cannot override the provisions of the Act. The workman has denied the claim made by the Management and reiterated whatever he has stated in his statement of claim.

From their pleadings it is clear that the parties have admitted facts to a large extent. It is admitted that the workman was engaged by the Management and that he served the Management for 240 days till 1-10-2003 when his services were terminated by the Management without giving him notice or wages in lieu of notice period or retrenchment compensation. The Management has taken the plea that the termination of the services of the workman was affected in terms of his letter of appointment, the contents of which are not denied by the workman. The letter of engagement of the workman dated 10-7-2001 has been placed on record as Annexure W/2, by the workman. It reads that the workman, Suresh Kumar, is offered an opportunity for employment on the terms and conditions as a term based contingent workman. It further reads that the workman is being engaged in their project at Sundernagar which is a exploratory drilling project and which can be bound up at any time depending upon its results. It further reads that the engagement of the workman shall be for the period the activities remain in operation at Sundernagar and on the completion of the work his services shall be terminated without further notice. The letter of appointment further says that the workman shall be paid Rs. 150 per day for the work done inclusive of wages for the weekly rest. As per clause 3, if the requirement of the job ceases before the expiry of the stipulated period or the workman wants to leave the job any time before that, one month's notice or wages for one month in lieu thereof will be paid by either of the side. The workman was also to be governed by the standing orders besides the terms of the appointment order and he was given 10 days time to join the job.

A plain reading of the letter of appointment, the existence of which is not denied rather workman has relied there upon, clearly shows that the engagement of the workman was for Sundernagar exploratory drilling project and as per the terms and conditions of the engagement letter the services of the workman were to be taken only up to the time the drilling activities of the project continued at Sundernagar. The workman himself had admitted that his services were terminated when the Management bound up the project at Sundernagar. As per the terms and conditions of the engagement letter, the workman was not entitled to a month's notice or wages for the notice period except in case the workman was to be disengaged during the period the activities of the Project continued or the workman himself wanted to leave the job in between and in that case one month's notice to be given by either of the side or was to pay wages for the notice period. That contingency did not take place in the case of the workman as he continued working for the Management till the activities of the Project continued at Sundernagar and he was disengaged only when the project at Sundernagar was bound up. Thus, there is no merit in the claim of the workman that since he had put in more than 240 days continued service 12 months preceding the date of termination of his services, therefore, he was entitled to one month's notice or wages for the notice period and the retrenchment compensation and that the Management admittedly did not do so, therefore, disengagement of the workman was bad in law. In this view of mine I rely upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court reported as JT 2003(3) SC 436 in the case S.M. Nilajkar and ors Versus Telecom District Manager, Karnataka.

The workman has taken another ground to challenge the disengagement. It is his claim that the Management had started another Project at Dangar about 50 K.Ms from Sundernagar and the workman being a trained skilled labourer, therefore, he had prior right to be taken on that project and the Management having failed to give opportunity to him, therefore, also they violated the provisions of Section 25-H of the Act. In my opinion this plea of the workman also does not have any merit for the reasons that the Project at Dangar was a separate and independent Project although that of the Management. Secondly, the workman has not shown as to when the Project at Dangar had started. Whether it had started before the issuance of the demand notice by the workman? The witness of the Management denied that the drilling operation at Dangar (Bilaspur) was carried out after Sundernagar immediately. The workman himself nowhere showed as to when the Project at Dangar had started. Thus, his claim for re-engagement in the Dangar Project is also not justified. Also this aspect could not be gone into since it is beyond the scope of the reference in hand.

For whatever has been discussed above, I am of the opinion that the workman has no case and he has failed to prove that the termination of his services with effect from 01-10-2003 was illegal and unjustified. His claim for re-engagement in Dangar Project is beyond the scope of the reference under hand. Therefore, he is not entitled to any relief. The reference is answered against him and the award is passed. Let a copy of this award be sent to the appropriate Government for necessary action and the file be consigned to records after due completion.

Following reference was received from the Ministry of Labour, Government of India, vide L-30011/13/2004 IR(M) dated 7-6-2004, which reads as under :

"Whether the action of the management of Oil & Natural Gas Corporation Ltd, Tel Bhawan, Dehradun in terminating the services of Shri Shyam Lal S/o Shri Nand Lal, Ex-Contigent Worker (unskilled) w.e.f. 1-10-2003 without any notice without any payment of retrenchment compensation, is illegal and unjustified? #### AWARD

This is a reference made under Section 10(1)(d) of Industrial Disputes Act. The reference is :

“Whether the action of Air India in not considering the demands raised by Airlines Casual Employees Association vide charter of demands dated 17-06-2004 (Copy enclosed) is just, fair and legal? If not, to what relief are the concerned workmen entitled and from what date?

2. The facts of the case in brief are as follows :— According to the union the Air India Limited is carrying out the ground handling work in Cochin International Airport Limited since 1999 on contract basis. For this purpose workers were employed by Air India on casual basis. The workers have been working continuously ever since 2001. But they are paid on daily rate basis without any other benefits like weekly off, bonus, provident fund, E.S.I. etc. The nature of work they are doing is permanent. But the management with the intention of denying benefits to workers have kept them as casual employees even now. This is an unfair labour practice. The union had submitted a charter of demands to the management claiming regularisation, wage payment on monthly basis, wage rise, weekly off and other statutory benefits. The denial of such benefits to labourers who have been working for many years is unfair and the workers are entitled to the claims made in the charter of demands.

3. According to the management the union cannot raise an industrial dispute on behalf of casual workers. It is not correct to say that the labourers were working continuously from 2001 onwards. It is by virtue of an agreement with Cochin International Airport Ltd. that Air India Ltd. has undertaken the ground handling work of the Airport. For the purpose of ground handling work the number of workers required may vary according to the arrival of flights. Therefore it cannot be said that all the employees will always be required. Casual workers are not entitled for regularisation. Since the workers are casual workers they cannot claim monthly salary. At present they are paid more than minimum wages. O.T. wages are also paid on pro-rata basis. Air India is governed by the Air India Employees' Provident Fund Act, 1925 and Air India Employees' Provident Fund Regulations, 1954. As per the Act and Regulations permanent employees alone are eligible to be members of provident fund. Air India has been incurring loss for the last few years and hence no bonus could be paid to casual employees. The contract with the CIAL is not for indefinite period. The remaining period of contract is only 2½ years. The management has provided rest room for the use of casual employees and toilet facility is available in the terminal building. The question of extending leave facilities does not arise as the workers are casual workers. They are not made to work continuously for 3 or 4 days as alleged by the union. Hence none of the claims in the charter of demands is allowable.

4. In the light of the above contentions the following points arise for consideration:

1. Whether the workers under the union have been working continuously for a long time?
2. Whether the act of the management in not regularising the workers in service amounts to unfair labour practice?

3. Whether the claims in the charter of demands are allowable?

The evidence consists of the oral testimony of WW 1 and documentary evidence of Exts.W1 to W-10 on the side of the union and MW1 and Ext.M1 on the side of the management.

5. Points 1 & 2 :—It is an admitted fact that about 80 workers who are members of the union have been working as casual employees under Air India Ltd. since 1999. They are attending to ground handling work in the Cochin International Airport Ltd. This work was undertaken by Air India Ltd. on contract for a period of 10 years. The ground handling work consists of carriage of baggages of passengers and cargo to and from aircraft and to ramp. According to the management the quantum of work force depends upon the work load. The work is not continuous but only intermittent so far as individual labourer is concerned. Even if the employees have worked continuously for 240 days or more during any year they cannot claim regularisation in service. It is also the case of the management that the work is not perennial in nature, but depends on the number of flights operating at Cochin International Airport and availability of contract work to the management.

6. As long as C.I.Airport is functioning flights will arrive and the need of labour to handle baggages and cargo is inevitable. It is beyond controversy that flights are always on the increase year after year and so do the passengers. Naturally the handling of baggages and cargo will proportionately increase. But it is for the principal employer (CIAL) to decide who should be entrusted the ground handling work. They may employ their own staff to do it or continue to entrust the work to contractors. It is not necessary that CIAL should always choose the same contractor for the work. Hence even if the work is perennial in nature it is true so far as CIAL is concerned, but not the contractor (Air India Ltd.). At the end of the contract period the work of the contractor comes to an end. Unless the contract is renewed from time to time Air India Limited cannot be certain that the work will be available always. Depending upon the terms of contract even before the expiry of the period of contract it can be cancelled on giving sufficient notice by either side. Hence so far as Air India Ltd. is concerned it cannot be said that the nature of the work is perennial. Ext.W7 Muster Roll, W9 punch card, Ext.W-10 wage statement for the period from 1999 to 2007 reveal that the workers have been working continuously. However Ext.W9 punch card shows that sometimes the employees are made to work continuously for 2 to 4 days round the clock. For example as per Ext.W9 worker Shaju was engaged on 03-04-2008 for ground handling work at 2 p.m. and he was relieved on 07-04-2008 at 6.30 p.m. only. Similarly he worked from 08-04-2008 to 14-04-2008 continuously. There are a few more similar instances in Ext.W9. As per Ext.W-10 wage statement of worker Ansar it is seen that he had done more hours of OT work during a day than normal working hours. The remuneration received by him for the month of September, 1999 for normal work is Rs.1760 while for OT work, Rs.3650. Similar is the case in respect of many other periods. It has come out from the testimony of WWI the Union Secretary as well as casual employee, that it is the practice of Air India that workers are made to work continuously for 2 or 3 or 4 days without break, but only one attendance for 8 hours alone is recorded and the remaining period is treated as OT work. This was done to create break in service. MWI is the Manager (HRD) of Air India, Chennai. He admits (page-7) that workman Shaju had reported for duty on 03-04-2008 at 2 p.m. and he was relieved after the work on 07-04-2008 at 6.30 p.m. But he explains that between the commencement and the relieving the worker was allowed to go home and take rest. Therefore he was not working continuously for 5 days at a stretch. He also says that during the resting time he was given OT wages. Again he reiterates (page-15) that an employee who attended duty on 3rd April 2008 and checked out on 7th April 2008 would get only one day's attendance and the remaining period would be treated as OT. He further admits that though weekly off is given to casual workers they are not paid. No statutory holidays are also given to casual employees. This is the modus operandi of Air India in employing causal workers. It is to be noted that the circular of Beuro of Civil Aviation Security, Ministry of Civil Aviation says that the ground handling work shall not be entrusted to unauthorised private agencies (Ext.W4). Hence CIAL cannot entrust the work of ground handling to anyone other than authorised agencies. But that does not mean that Air India Ltd. is the only authorised agency.

7. It was argued by the learned counsel for the union that the causal employees have been working continuously from 2001 onwards. But they are denied statutory benefits and they are also not regularised in service which is an unfair labour practice. Section 2(ra) of I.D. Act defines unfair labour practice. The fifth schedule to I.D. Act refers to unfair labour practices. Part-I item No.10 reads :

"To employ workmen as badlis, casuals or temporaries and to continue them as such for years, with the object of depriving them of the status and privileges of permanent workmen".

It is true that these workers have been working since 1999 as causal labourers, but they are paid daily wages alone and no other benefits. But I have observed that the ground handling work is not a work of permanent nature so far as Air India Ltd. is concerned as the entrustment of work is not within the control of Air India and it is for CIAL to decide. There are no permanent hands doing ground handling work and consequently it is not correct to say there are vacancies of ground handling workers in the management establishment. The Air India Ltd. is a Central Government undertaking and they are governed by statutory rules and regulations for appointment of personnel on permanent basis. No permanent appointment can be made by a public sector undertaking bypassing rules of recruitment. The position is clarified in the following decisions referred to by the learned counsel for the management.

8. In Secretary State of Karnataka and others vs. Umadevi (2006) 4 SCC 1 = AIR 2006 SC 1806 it is held that absorption, regularisation or permanent continuance of temporary, casual or adhoc employees appointed dehors Rules and constitutional scheme of public employment, shall not be ordered by Courts. This is so even if the contract labourers or casual workers or adhoc workers have worked for a long period.

The same is the observation in Accounts Officer (A&I), APS RTC & Ors. V. K.V.Ramana and Ors AIR 2007 SC 1166.

In Punjab Water Supply and Sewerage Board v. Ranjodh Singh AIR 2007 SC 1082 it is observed that the rules of recruitment cannot be relaxed and the Courts/Tribunals cannot direct regularisation of temporary appointees dehors the rules, nor can direct continuation of service of a temporary employee (whether called casual, adhoc or daily rate employee) or payment of regular salaries to them.

In Ex. Engg. ZP Engg. Divn. v. Digambara Rao (2004) 8 SCC 262 it is held at para 20 that completion of 240 days of continuous service in a year may not by itself be a ground for regularisation. In the decided case respondents before the Hon'ble Supreme Court were originally employed on daily wage basis in relation to a scheme aimed at providing drinking water and construction of roads for the benefit of the rural poor in the district Gulbarga in the State of Karnataka. The employment commenced in the year 1993 and the services of the respondents were terminated in the year 1996. The workers, claiming regularisation, filed writ petitions before High Court of Karnataka. The writ petitions were dismissed. Appeals filed against the judgments were also dismissed by the Division Bench. Meanwhile references were received by Labour Court, Gulbarga and were adjudicated and labour court passed awards setting aside the orders of termination of service and directing re-instatement and payment of 50% of the backwages. This was challenged in writ petitions in the High Court, which were dismissed and against which appeals were filed and they were also dismissed. Hence appeals were filed before Hon'ble Supreme Court which were allowed making the above observation.

In C.S. Azad Krishi Evam Prodyogiki Vishwa-vidyalaya v. United Trades Congress (2008) 2 SCC 552 it is observed that continuous service for a period of more than 240 days by itself does not confer any right on a workman for regularisation in service. In the reported case the employees were engaged by the university in a project work. Hence the nature of the work was temporary and at the end of the project their services were dispensed with. It was therefore observed that no person who was a temporary or casual employee could be directed to continue permanently and by doing so it would be creating another mode of public employment which is not permissible in law.

9. In the light of the observations made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court it follows that a statutory body or a public sector undertaking cannot absorb or regularise casual or adhoc employees simply for the reason that they have been working continuously for many years. Such establishment will have to follow the norms of recruitment, consider the age and qualification of persons to be appointed, the number of vacancies available etc. It follows therefore that the workers cannot claim regularisation of service as a matter of right. It is the discretion of the employer to follow the recruitment procedure and consider the candidature of a casual employee for a permanent appointment.

10. Point No. 3:—Regarding the remaining claims in the charter of the demands at present they are paid wages on daily basis and the claim is for payment of wages on monthly basis. Usually this is done when the workers are permanent. The casual workers are not paid on the days they do not work including holidays and therefore payment on monthly basis cannot be resorted to in the case of casual workers.

The next claim is -rise in wages. According to the union now the workers are paid Rs. 150 per day. It is seen from Ext. W 5 an order of High Court of Bombay that there is a direction to Air India to pay wages @ Rs.215 per day to casual workers who had approached before the High Court in Writ Petition. That wage rate is not adopted or implemented by the management so far as the casual employees of Air India is concerned. But there is no case that the workers are not paid minimum wages. It is for the management to consider hike in wages periodically. I am sure that the management will make earnest attempt to adopt the wage rate made mention in Ext. W5 so far as its casual employees are concerned.

It is not in dispute that wages are paid for over time work.

It is true that no weekly off or statutory holidays are given to casual workers. By virtue of their status as casual employees they are entitled for wages only for the days they work. Even though the casual workers are availing weekly off it is natural that they are not paid for weekly off days. They are not legally entitled to get wages for weekly off and other holidays as they are not working.

The next claim is regarding leave benefits. Being casual employees no leave rules are applicable to them and they cannot avail the benefit of leave as is applicable to permanent employees.

There is no PF coverage for the casual workers. According to the management Air India Limited has a separate P.F. Act namely Air India Employees' Provident Fund Act, 1925. But it covers only permanent employees. It is not correct to say that just because the Air India Employees Provident Fund Act and Regulations do not envisage casual workers they need not be given the benefit of PF. In the absence of any such provision resort should be made to Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952. But it is pointed out by the learned counsel for the management that since Air India Ltd. is not a scheduled industry under schedule-I of the Act, 1952 the Act is not applicable to Air India. That being the position, the union will have to approach the Government to get the industry notified under the schedule to get coverage of the provisions of the Act to casual and adhoc employees of Air India Ltd.

The union is also claiming bonus for the employees. It has come out in the testimony of MW1 that bonus was paid to casual employees in the year 2002 and 2008, but not for the periods in between. The contention of the management is that the management was running at loss during the years prior to 2008 and that is why no bonus was paid. It cannot be disputed that irrespective of the profit or loss the workers are entitled to get bonus as per S.10 of Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 (J.K. Chemicals Ltd. v. Government of Maharashtra 1997-III-LLJ 578 Born). The management will have to consider that aspect and pay the arrears of bonus.

The claim for entry pass is reasonable as the casual workers are working in the security area. It is for the employer to see that proper pass is issued to its workers by the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security or any other concerned authority.

It is admitted by management that there is no canteen facility. Since large number of casual workers are engaged by Air India and they are working in Airport area food is not easily available and at reasonable rate. Unless some provision is made for food or canteen is provided, it will be extremely difficult for the workers to work continuously and sometimes without break.

It is in evidence that a rest room is provided, though small, in the Air Port.

However admittedly no separate toilet facility is provided. It is contended by the management that casual workers are using the toilets of passengers. It is not advisable to use the toilets meant for passengers and it is not fair to deny separate toilet facility to workers. It is an essential requirement for the workers who are working day and night in the Air Port.

11. For the reasons stated above except the claim for bonus, canteen and toilet facility, the other demands in the cluster of demands are not sustainable.

In the result an award is passed finding that action of the management of Air India in not favourably considering the charter of demands raised by the union is not illegal or unjustified except with regard to payment of bonus for the years 2003 to 2007, canteen and toilet facilities. The workers are not entitled to other claims in the charter of demands.

The award will come into force one month after its publication in the official gazette.

Dictated to the Personal Assistant, transcribed and typed by her, corrected and passed by me on this the 4th day of December, 2008.

Dated, Dhanbad, the 30th December, 2008.

AWARD

The Government of India, Ministry of Labour, in exercise of the powers conferred on them under Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication vide their Order No. L-20012/142/1988-IR (C-1) dated, the 5th October, 1989.

SCHEDULE

“Whether the action of the management of Dahibari Colliery of M/s. Bharat Coking Coal Ltd. in stopping for employment Shri Siya Charan Chouhan w.e.f. 17-08-1982 is justified? If not, to what relief the concerned workmen entitled?”

2. The case of the workman as disclosed in his W.S. is that Shri Siya Charan Chouhan, son (adopted) of Late Ramswarup Nonia was provided with employment in place of his deceased father from May, 1982 under provision of NCWA-II. He was stoped from work by the Agent, Dahibari Colliery from 17-8-1982 without assigning any reason causing forceful idleness. Thereafter inspite of repeated representations made by him he was not allowed to resume his duty. As a result, a dispute was raised before the ALC(C), Dhanbad which ultimately resulted reference to this Tribunal for adjudication. It has been submitted on behalf of the workman that the action of the management in stopping Shri Siya Charan Chouhan from work w.e.f. 17-8-1982 is unjustified, arbitrary and illegal and the workman is entitled to reinstatement in employment w.e.f. 17-8-1982. It has been further submitted on behalf of the workman to pass an Award directing the management to reinstate the concerned workman with consequential benefits.

3. In the W.S. filed on behalf on the management is that one person named Shri Siya Charan Chouhan submitted an application for his employment as dependent son of the workman, named Ramswarup Nonia under clause 10.4.2 of NCWA-II enclosing therewith a purported death certificate of Shri Ramswarup Nonia. In good faith management processed his application believing his declaration to be correct and gave him employment by letter dated 20/21-5-1982. The concerned workman could hardly work for three months as because his false representation came to light and Shri Ramswarup Nonia, who was absenting from his duty due to his sickness without information. Subsequently on 9th September, 1982 he came to the colliery and submitted an application to the Agent of the Colliery stating therein that he was still alive and the concerned workman Shri Siya Charan Chouhan is not his son. A large number of workmen came to the office of the Agent of Dahibari Colliery alongwith Shri Ramswarup Nonia and demanded serious action to be taken against the concerned workman. The matter was highlighted in the Newspaper 'Awaj', FIR was lodged to the police, A preliminary enquiry was held regarding various complaints against the concerned workman and it was established that Shri Ramswarup Nonia was alive and the concerned workman was not his son. Thereafter the initial employment was illegal and void. The concerned workman was not the son of Shri Ramswarup Nonia, so his employment was illegal and invalid and that Shri Ramswarup Nonia is still alive. Therefore, he was stopped from his duty w.e.f. 17-8-1982. It has been prayed on behalf of the management to pass an Award rejecting the claim of the concerned workman.

4. Both the parties have filed their respective rejoinder admitting and denying some of the contents of each other's W.S.

5. In order to substantiate their claim management have produced and examined Digambar Bhattacharjee as MW-1 and also produced and examined wife of Ramswarup Nonia as MW-2.

6. Workmanside also produced Siya Charan Chouhan, Abdul Sattar and Bikhari Chouhan who have been examined as MW-1, MW-2, and MW-3 respectively.

7. Main argument advanced on behalf of the workman is that cost of Rs.500/- awarded on 31-3-2005 against the management has not been paid and management had taken frequent adjournments and as per amendment of CPC Order XVII, Sub-rule i, Rule (2) which has been amended by the CPC (A) Act, 1999 (Act of 1999) Sub-Rule (2) of Rule 1 in which it has been mentioned that in every such case the court shall fix a day for the further hearing of the suit, and shall make such orders as to costs occasioned by the adjournment or such higher costs as the Court deems fit. He argued that this provision is mandatory but management has not mandatory but management has not paid the cost. So it had violated the order of Court and in this respect it has been submitted that in 2006(108) F.L.50 at page 54 Hon'ble Supreme Court held that adjournment under I.D. Act, there is no specific rule. Another ground which has been argued by the Ld. Counsel for the management regarding citing of Salem Advocate Bar Association case has not been published in 2005(4)JLJR169. He also argued that Hon'ble Apex Court in Salem Advocates case in para 31 of page 179 and in para 8 at page 202 have recommended cost and the argument has been advanced that the then Presiding Officer by order dt. 21-3-2003 directed both the parties to sit together and sort out the documents filed in Ref. No.71/88 so that the same may be cited and considered by the Tribunal but Mr. B.M. Prasad refused to carry out orders of the Tribunal and the workman by its petition dated 2-7-2003 brought this fact to the notice of the Hon'ble Tribunal which is on the record of the Tribunal. These are the instances of arrogancy on the part of Mr. B. M. Prasad for disregarding the order of the Tribunal and Mr. B. M. Prasad read deliberately false journals.

8. Regarding facts of adoption of Siya Charan two witnesses have proved the facts of adoption. This has not been accepted wrongly and as per Section 6 and 12 of Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956 he is adopted son of Ramswarup Nonia and registration is not required at all and in such cases burden of proving of adoption is on the person, who disproves the adoption and not on the persons who asserts. Ld. Counsel for the workman referred 1981 All LJ No. C 587, 1978(48) Cal L.T. 459, AIR 1973 Orissa 3(5) D.B. In this respect Ld. Counsel for the management argued that adoption deed has not been proved before the Court so it cannot be construed that the concerned workman was adopted son of Ramswarup Nonia because adopted son will lose natural father and mother in its adoption unless adoption deed is proved. In this respect Ld. Counsel of workman also argued that in the Bihar Vidyalaya Pariksha Samity Certificate No. 84C/384426 his father's name has been mentioned as Ram Swarup Nonia and his date of birth has been mentioned as 18th January, 1968.

9. Regarding age he also argued that Medical Officer has found his age as 18 years and as per record of Matriculation Certificate he is not under age at the time of appointment. All records have been seen by the management but they have not considered it. He also argued that Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mohan Mahtovrs-M/s. BCCL reported in 2007(4) JLJR- 144 has made it very clear that minor has got right to get a job under the N.C.W.A. In this respect Ld. Counsel for the management argued that the concerned workman has not been adopted by Ram Swarup Nonia because of the fact that MW-2 who is mother of the concerned workman and wife of Ramswarup has stated on oath that the concerned workman has not been adopted and he is not adopted child. She has stated that her husband became made in the year 1982 because of which he had left working in the colliery and then Siya Charan Chouhan who is relative has got service of the company falsely declaring to be the son of her husband. After sometime her husband has returned back and then management stopped the concerned workman from working on the ground that he has got employment fraudulent means claiming to be the adopted son of Ram Swarup Nonia. Ld. Counsel for the management argued that though there is police report that Ramswarup Nonia had died and it has been mentioned in the certificate issued by village Mukhiya that Siya Charan Chouhan is the son of late Ram Swarup Nonia but it has got no meaning while Kushri Devi, wife of Ram Swarup Nonia alleged to be the adopted mother and father respectively has stated as MW-2 that Ram Swarup Nonia has not adopted him. It shows that he was not the adopted son of Ram Swarup Nonia.

10. Ld. Counsel for the workman has referred to a decision referred to in 1983 Lab I. C. 1694 in which Hon'ble Supreme Court held if termination of services of workman is in total breach of principles of natural justice-Delay in raising industrial dispute by workman-Awarding of full back wages was not justified. Ld. Counsel for the workman also referred another decision reported in SCLJ Vol. 10 page 304 in which Hon'ble Supreme Court laid down that workman appointed for period of probation of six months on basis of letter of appointment of his service-Workman discharged from service w.e.f. date to which his date of probation was extended-Standing Order of company providing that probationer is one who has not completed two months service-held that terms of standing order would prevail over corresponding, terms in contract of service. Ld. Counsel also referred to a decision reported in 1999 Lab I.C. 3317 in which requisites of valid adoption has been prescribed. Ld. Counsel also referred Industrial Employment (S.O.) Act, 1946 Rule 17 Clause (o) giving false information regarding one's name, age, father's name, qualification of previous service at the time of the employment be taken as Misconduct. He has also referred 2007 JJJR Supreme Court page 145 in which Hon'ble Supreme Court laid down that a public sector undertaking is not only to act fairly but also reasonably and bonafide.

11. Regarding father's name in Bihar Vidyalaya Pariksha Samity Certificate mentioned as Ram Swarup Nonia does not confer any right to the concerned workman to become adopted child when he has declared and given false fabricated certificate to the management.

12. No Succession certificate has been filed by the concerned workman to prove that he is successor of Ram Swarup Nonia as he has filed a false certificate of Mukhiya of village Chiraili. Mukhiya of that village has got no right to grant such succession certificate of any person who is alleged to be dead.

13. The concerned workman WW-1 has stated in cross-examination that he was adopted son of Ram Swarup Nonia whose wife is Kushri Devi and Kushri Devi as MW-2 has stated that Siyaram Chouhan is not her adopted son and no adoption has been taken by her husband Ram Swarup Nonia who has become made and left working in the colliery and after fabricating false certificate Siya Ram Chouhan has got employment. Thereafter her husband again appeared and the concerned workman has been stopped from work by the management after enquiry on the ground that the concerned workman has furnished false and fabricated documents. Abdul Sattar, WW-2 is said to be the witness of adoption. It shows that he is Muslim and the concerned workman is Hindu. It shows that he has given false evidence because in the religious function of Hindu witness of muslim does not seem to be genuine. WW-2 has stated in cross-examination there is no paper to show that there was adoption and there was function relating to adoption. Siya Charan Chouhan is matric pass and in the school register as well as in the certificate of matriculation the name of father of Siya Charan Chouhan has been noted.

14. This fact has further been proved by the evidence of Bhikhari Chouhan, WW-3 father of Siya Charan Chouhan. WW-3 in course of his evidence in examination-in-chief has deposed before this Tribunal that Siya Charan Chouhan is his son and he has been adopted by his younger brother Ram Swarup Nonia. It only shows that Siya Charan Chouhan is the son of Bhikhari Chouhan who is elder brother of Ram Swarup Nonia. As Ram Swarup Nonia became mad as per evidence given by his wife MW-2 Kushri Devi, Siya Charan Chouhan fabricated certificates from village Mukhiya and educational certificate mentioning the name of Ram Swarup Nonia as his father. As regards matriculation certificate marked as Ext. W-3, WW-3 has stated that the above certificate was not produced before the management on any point of time and also he does not know if the concerned workman Siya Charan Chouhan has ever informed the management that he is matriculate. It shows that Matriculation certificate has been fabricated after he was removed from support his case.

15. Applications have also been given by the employees that the concerned workman has given false certificate Ram Swarup Nonia himself appeared at his working place and enquiry was conducted and on enquiry it was found that Ram Swarup Nonia is not dead on which basis the concerned workman claims appointment on compassionate ground.

16. Moreover, compassionate appointment cannot be given when Ram Swarup Nonia's wife Kushri Devi is already working and she has not stated any employment be given to his son on compassionate ground.

17. In a decision reported in 2008 Lab I.C. Hon'ble Supreme Court laid down the following :—

“Termination of Service—Bank Employee—Appointment secured on false caste claim—Termination of service is valid—Facts that the security of caste certificate was done after long delay, Scrutiny Committee took long time and appointee had put in long service—In consequential—Equity sympathy or generosity has no place where original appointment rests on a false caste certificate.”

In this respect Hon'ble Court referred the following cases :

I do not find any merit in the claim of the concerned workman and accordingly following Award is rendered :—

“The action of the management of Dahibari Colliery of M/s. Bharat Coking Coal Ltd. in stopping from employment Shri Siya Charan Chouhan w.e.f. 17-08-1982 is justified. Consequently the concerned workman is not entitled to get any relief.”

AWARD

Passed on this 23rd day of December, 2008

1. The Government of India, Ministry of Labour vide its Notification No. L-22012/172/2001-IR(CM-II) dated 12-8-02 has referred the following dispute for adjudication by this tribunal :—

"Whether the action of the Chief General Manager, Sohagpur Area of SECL at PO Dhanpuri, Distt. Shahdol in not regularising Shri Horilal Kewat, Tripman Clerk Grade III as Attendance Clerk Grade II w.e.f. 6/1995 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled to?"

2. The case of the workman in brief is as follows : That workman Shri Horilal was appointed as General Mazdoor Category-I at Vivek Nagar Colliery of Chachai Sub-Area of SECL in September, 1988 and thereafter he was deployed as Attendance Clerk Grade-II on 2-6-92. He was doing the job of attendance clerk in time office upto 12-1-95. He was promoted from General Mazdoor Fitter Helper Category-II in the month of September, 1992 and was further regularised as Tripman clerk category-III w.e.f. 17-1976/1995. He submitted his representation to the management for change of his designation as General Mazdoor Grade-III instead of Tripman clerk. But the management did not consider his representation. As per circular of the management, all those workmen who have completed more than 190/240 days in calendar year should be regularized. The pay and cadre of Tripman and Clerk is the same but there is no further channel for promotion for the post of Tripman whereas there is a channel of promotion from the post of clerk. In the other cases, the management has considered the representations made by the others and designation of various Tripman clerks Grade-III has been changed to Fitter Clerk Grade-III. It is, therefore, prayed by the workman that he is entitled for regularization as Attendance clerk Grade-III w.e.f. 6/1995 with all consequential relief of arrears of wages.

3. The case of the management in brief is as follows : That the DPC was held on 23-8-92 to examine the cases of eligible Departmental candidates of Vivek Nagar Incline for considering their cases for promotion to higher categories. That DPC considered the case of workman Shri Horilal and recommended the post of Fitter Helper Category II. Thereafter the workman was selected to the post of Tripman accordingly vide office order dated 19-6-95. He was transferred vide order No. 1491 dated 6-1-96. The workman was all along working as Tripman. He did not work as clerk. Therefore his claim for promotion/regularising as Attendance Clerk Grade II w.e.f. 6/1995 is not maintainable. He was never asked to do the job of attendance clerk. The workman is not entitled to be regularized as Attendance Clerk Grade-II since 1995.

4. Vide order dated 30-1-08 passed on the ordersheet of this reference proceeding, the reference proceeded exparte against the workman.

5. The management in order to prove their case filed affidavit of their witness Shri Charan Singh, then working as Sub Area Manager in Amlai Open Cast Mine.

6. I have heard Shri A.K. Shashi, Advocate for the management. I have very carefully gone through the evidence on record.

7. The case of the management is fully proved from the uncontroverted and unchallenged affidavit of their witness Shri Charan Singh. The reference, therefore, deserves to be decided in favour of the management and against the workman without any orders as to costs.

8. In view of the above, the reference is decided in favour of the management against the workman Shri Horilal without any orders as to costs holding that the action of the Chief General Manager, Sohagpur Area of SECL at PO Dhanpuri, Distt. Shahdol in not regularising Shri Horilal Kewat, Tripman Clerk Grade III as Attendance Clerk Grade II w.e.f. 6/1995 is legal and justified and consequently the workman is not entitled to any relief.

9. Let the copies of the award be sent to the Government of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment as per rules.

AWARD

The matrix of the facts as culled out from the proceedings are as under :

1. The Government of India, Ministry of Labour by its Order No. L-11012/16/2002-IR (C-1) dated 15th July, 2002 in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section 2(A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 have referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication :

"Whether the action of the management of M/s. Aeroflot Russian Airlines in dismissing Mrs. Marilyn Fernandez from service vide letter dated 29-3-2001 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief is the concerned workman entitled?"

2. To substantiate the subject matter of the reference Second Party Workmen filed Statement of Claim at Exhibit 8 making out the case that she joined the services of the 1st Party at Mumbai on 15th July, 1987 and worked thereafter continuously till her services were terminated. She claims that, she was a permanent staff member of the 1st Party. Then by order dated 24th February, 2001 she was directed to resume duties at the Airport office. 2nd Party submitted that, Mr. Igor Ivliev, who is citizen of Russia, was Manager Western India, came as a Manager of the 1st Party at Mumbai being enthusiastic about introducing new work cultures, ideas and working method in the office of the 1st Party at Mumbai, started harassing the employees working at Bombay Branch. Some of them were not matching with the Indian location so she objected some of the ideas introduced by Mr. Igor Ivliev. He did not like it and he started harassing the concerned workman and then she received the termination notice dated 29th March, 2001. She received letter of termination leveling certain allegations. In fact, said allegations were never brought to the notice of the concerned workman. No opportunity was given to the concerned workman to explain the allegations leveled in the termination notice. Neither charge sheet was served nor show cause notice given to her. Straight away she was terminated without following due process of law. Even amount of Rs. 1,28,215 paid to her as legal dues is not proper and correct amount as required under Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 since retrenchment compensation was not included in it. So she states that, said termination notice dated 29th March, 2001 be declared as null and void and 1st party be directed to reinstate her with continuity of service and payment of backwages.

3. She further states that, she tried to secure the job but unable to get it since action of termination was punitive mentioning as 'loss of confidence' of the First Party which was stigma on the service carrier of the 2nd Party.

4. This is disputed by the 1st Party by filing Written Statement at Exhibit 7 stating that, Reference cannot be made by the Labour Ministry without consulting the Government of India. 1st Party is Corporate body of a foreign state and it cannot be prosecuted in the Reference like this. It is further stated that, she was appointed on contract basis. Contract was renewed year to year and last contract expired on 31st December, 2000. It was not renewed thereafter. During that, period 1st Party found work of the 2nd Party "unsatisfactory". 1st Party also noted that, she lost confidence of the 1st Party. So by termination notice dated 29th March, 2001 she was terminated with effect from 31-3-2001 and all legal dues were paid to her. It is further stated that, the 1st Party is engaged in providing airlines services. A passenger by name Mrs. Tuulia Matikainen who traveled from Helsinki to Mumbai via Moscow approached the workman concerned with a request that, she is having a return ticket from Mumbai to Helsinki via Moscow of 1st Party but she would like to board plane from Kathmandu instead of Mumbai and requested that necessary endorsement to that effect be made on her ticket. It is alleged that, the concerned Workman on 29th December, 2000 after receiving the above request from the passenger, sent a telex message to Helsinki for ascertaining the difference in fare to be charged and to be collected from the passenger. This telex message sent by the workman concerned could not get immediate response from Helsinki. In the meanwhile on 3rd January, 2001, abovenamed passenger came to the establishment at Mumbai and approached the concerned Workman and when informed that, there was no response till 3-1-2001 from Helsinki, the passenger became upset and angry. The concerned Workman therefore, repeated the earlier telex to Helsinki with addition of urgency. The passenger was requested to come next day i.e. on 4th January, 2001 and accordingly the passenger came on 4th January, 2001. By that time, reply came from Helsinki with instructions that, difference in fare would be $ 200 which was to be collected from the passenger. Accordingly, the workman concerned collected $ 200 in Indian rupees i.e. 9300 from the above named passenger and made an endorsement on the ticket of the passenger to that effect. As a part of her duty the workman concerned was under obligation to issue Miscellaneous Charge Order (MCO) to the passenger and keep counterfoil in the office. Workman concerned was also required to deposit the said amount of Rs. 9380/- so collected on the same day with the Cashier of the 1st Party and was required to make an entry to that effect in the register maintained for the purpose. However, the concerned Workman neither deposited said amount on 4-1-2001 with the Cashier nor made any entry in the register kept for that purpose. It was alleged that, she misappropriated the above amount till the said amount was deposited. It is further stated that, normally the concerned Workman could have succeeded in misappropriate the above amount and at the same time gone scot free. However, to her bad luck on 27th January, 2001 when the above named passenger approached the Airlines office at Khatmandu, the Khatmandu office sought from Bombay Office verification of the endorsement made on her ticket after accepting $ 200 from the passenger. They sought verification by Telex message dated 27th January, 2001. It was found that, the said amount was not deposited in the office of the 1st Party at Bombay. The Manager of the 1st party at Bombay office received a phone call from Mr. Sokolov, the Manager of the 1st Party at Khatmandu in respect of the above passenger. On the next working day i.e. on 29th January, 2001 he confronted the workman concerned with information received. The Workman concerned in order to cover up her fraudulent act, made entry in the MCO/Ticket Register in the column which is generally left blank between entries of two months. In the said Register concerned Workman fraudulently show collection of the amount from the passenger on 24th January, 2001 although she collected it on 4-1-2001. The entry cannot be shown on the register of 4-1-2001 because entry was made date wise and the only date which could be entered was 24-1-2001 because the previous day entry in the said register was also of 24-1-2001. It was alleged that, therefore, concerned Workman made said entry fraudulently. It is alleged that, she made said entry in her own handwriting. It is alleged that, interestingly on 29-1-2001 the concerned Workman having been caught in the fraudulently and dishonest act and found deposited the amount of Rs. 9380 with the Cashier.

5. It is further contended by the 1st Party that, by order dated 24th February, 2001 the concerned Workman was transferred as stated above from the Town office to Airport office at Bombay and after ascertaining the above facts leading to the above fraudulent and dishonest acts, the services of the concerned workman were terminated by notice dated 29th March, 2001 giving effect from 31-3-2001. At the time she was paid her dues in full and final settlement which she accepted on 31st March, 2001.

6. It is stated that the case made out by the 2nd Party that, she was removed arbitrarily and without following due process of law is not correct. Since she was contract employee question of issuing charge sheet or question of proceeding with the enquiry against her does not arise. It is stated that, the concerned workman misappropriate large amount of the 1st Party in the past also and looking to her work and conduct Management concluded that, she lost the confidence of the Management and the Management decided to terminate her services which is just and proper. It is denied that, the incident referred above is vague and cooked story just to place it on record to terminate the services of the concerned workmen. It is stated that, the services of the concerned workman were terminated as per the provisions applicable to the concerned workman. It is stated that, the concerned workman is not entitled for any leniency. It is submitted that, the reference may be rejected since she is not entitled for any reliefs.

7. Then 2nd Party filed rejoinder at Exhibit 15 ignoring story made out by the Management about charge of ticket of passenger and misappropriation of the amount collected from her. It is pertinent to note that, the concerned workman has not touched said point in her rejoinder. Even she has not referred to nature of her appointment and comment upon the case of made out by the 1st Party that, she was appointed on contract basis and her contract is not renewed after 31st December, 2000.

8. In view of the above pleadings Issues were framed by my Ld. Predecessor at Exhibit 12 which I answer as follows:

ISSUES

FINDINGS

- |   |           |
|---|-----------|
| 1. Whether Management proves that that the Reference is not maintainable for want of consent of Central Government as averred in Written Statement para 1?                      | No        |
| 2. Whether the action of the Management of M/s. Aeroflot Russian Airlines in dismissing Mrs. Marilya Fernandez from service vide letter dated 29-3-2001 is legal and justified? | Yes       |
| 3. What relief the concerned Workmen are entitled to?   | No Relief |

REASONS:

ISSUE NO.1:

9. The Management has tried to make out the case that, Reference is not maintainable because, 1st Party is a undertaking of foreign body and to prosecute such a body, permission of the Central Government is necessary. Since there is not permission of the Central Government to prosecute 1st Party, the Reference is not tenable and is bad in law.

10. As far as this contention is concerned, no specific case is made out by the 1st Party. In the evidence 1st Party try to refer that point in the written arguments filed at Exhibit 26. But it is not specifically mentioned how Reference is bad in law and under which provisions permission of the Central Government is necessary to prosecute 1st Party? Even no any provisions is pointed out which debar the Reference like this in the absence of the consent of the Government of India. Besides it is to be noted that the Reference is made by the Central Government itself but by the Labour Ministry. That means Government of India is involved in making Reference i.e. through Ministry of Labour. Besides if at all decision of making Reference is not liked by the 1st Party, Then it was having option to challenge the decision of making the Reference. In my considered view this Court cannot consider this grievance of the 1st Party that on the decision of the Government of India, Labour Ministry, making Reference is not legal. Making Reference is a prerogative of the Government of India, Ministry of Labour. The Government of India has referred this Reference for adjudication. According to me, this Court cannot adjudicate on the decision taken by the Government of India, Ministry of Labour in sending Reference for adjudication. As stated above, no specific rule is pointed out which comes in the way of the Government of India, Ministry of Labour or in the way of the 2nd Party in making Reference. In this premises I am of the opinion that, we have to conclude that, Reference is maintainable as considered by the Government of India and separate consent of the Central Government is not necessary. Accordingly I answer this Issue to that effect.

ISSUE No. 2:

11. Reference is made regarding the decision taken by the 1st Party in terminating the services of the 2nd Party by letter dated 29th March, 2001 giving effect from 31st March, 2001. It is alleged by the 1st Party that, 2nd Party committed misappropriation, she lost the confidence of the 1st Party and since she was working on contract basis and since her contract after December, 2000 was not renewed, she is not entitled for any protection or she is not entitled to service of charge sheet, face enquiry, and was supposed to reply the charges and lead evidence to justify her act. Whereas case of the 2nd Party is that, since she worked for 13 years from 1987 she is a permanent employee of the 1st Party. She cannot be terminated as done in the instant case. There was no enquiry, no opportunity was given to her to explain the charges leveled against her. Even charge sheet was not served. She was not permitted to be represented through Defence Representative. The decision taken by the 1st Party is not just and proper. Besides all legal dues were not paid to her while terminating her services. On all these counts the case of the 2nd Party is that, the decision taken by the 1st party is not just and proper and require to interfere.

12. She also placed reliance on her depositions which she filed at Exhibit 18 where she alleges that, she was terminated without following due process of law. She claims that, injustice is caused to her and said termination deserves to be set aside. In the cross she admits that, she was appointed on contract basis. She admits that her contract was renewed from time to time. She admits that, she signed the contract as shown at Page 1 of Exhibit 11. She admits that her last contract was for the period from 1-1-2000 to 31-12-2000 as shown on page 3 of Exhibit 11. She admits that her services were provided on the basis of the said contract. She admits that she deposited Rs. 4000 and balance with the Airlines on 15-1-2001 as mentioned in the letter dated 5th April, 2001 which is shown on page 4 of Exhibit 11. She admits that, entry at Serial No. 5 as shown at Page 21 of Exhibit 11 dated 24-1-2001 is in her own handwriting.

13. So this is the evidence of the 2nd Party to claim reinstatement and she wants us to protect her and set aside the termination order under challenge. Against that, 1st Party led evidence by examining Mr. Igor Ivliev, Country Manager of the 1st Party at Bombay by filing his affidavit at Exhibit 19. He states that she was never issued appointment order. He states that, 2nd Party was appointed on contract basis. He states that, her contract was not renewed after 31-12-2000. He states that, 2nd Party misappropriated the amount collected from the passenger who travelled from Helsinki to Bombay via Moscow. He states that, the name of the passenger was Mrs. Tuulia Matikainen. He states that, the concerned passenger wanted to Board at Kathmandu so she approached the 2nd Party. Accordingly, concerned workman discussed with the said passenger and made correspondence with the Helsinki Airport. It is stated that, then concerned passenger was asked to deposit Rs. 9,380 as a difference of amount. It is stated that, the concerned workman did not deposit the said amount on 4-1-2001 when it was collected by her from the concerned passenger. It is stated that, the concerned Workman misappropriated the said amount. This witness made out the case that, the concerned Workman was appointed on contract basis and her lost contract expired on 31-12-2000 which was not renewed and so she was terminated by notice dated 29th March, 2001 giving effect from 31-3-2001. In the cross this witness states that, though the contract came to an end on 31-12-2000. She worked till 31-3-2001. He admits that, there was no any break in the employment of the 2nd Party and she was provided the work upto 31-3-2001. He admits that, the allegations levelled against the 2nd party in termination notice as well as in his affidavit in paras 2 to 10 were not communicated to the concerned workman. He also admitted that, neither charge sheet was issued to her nor enquiry was conducted against her after obtaining explanation on these charges.

13. 2nd Party filed written arguments at Exhibit 24 and the 1st Party replied it by filing written arguments at Exhibit 26.

14. From the evidence it reveals that, the 1st Party successfully proved that, 2nd Party was appointed on contract basis till 31-3-2000. It is also proved that there was no agreement/contract between the 1st Party and the 2nd Party after 31-12-2000. 1st Party succeeded in showing that, no appointment order was issued to the 2nd Party. 1st Party also succeeded in showing that, 2nd Party committed misappropriation of the amount mentioned in the written statement as well as mentioned in the depositions of the witness of the 1st party. The case made out by the 1st Party of accepting money by 2nd Party regarding change of ticket of passenger Mrs. Tuulia Matikainen and her meeting with the 2nd Party on that point on 4-1-2001 and deposit of amount of Rs. 9,380/- by the concerned passenger with the concerned workman is proved by the 1st Party and even it is not disputed by the 2nd Party. On the contrary 2nd Party in the cross admits that, she made entry dated 24-1-2001 as shown at page 21 of Exhibit 11. Even she admits that, the said entry is in her own handwriting. When 2nd Party admits the entry dated 24-1-2001 made on page 21 of Exhibit 11 and admits that it is in her own handwriting which reveals that she deposited said amount on 24-1-2001 though actually, collected on 4-1-2001. Besides, in the cross she admits that, she deposited Rs. 4000/- with Airlines on 24-1-2001 as mentioned in letter dated 5-4-2001 as shown at page 4 of Exhibit 11. When concerned Workman hide the appointment on contract basis and hidden the cause behind her termination, doubt arises about her creditability. It is pertinent to note that, she neither referred to the story of appointment on contract basis nor reason behind her termination as pointed out by the 1st Party in Statement of Claim nor in the rejoinder or in the evidence. Besides she did not refer it neither in the claims statement nor denied it. Even she did not refer it in the rejoinder where she could do all that. But here it is pertinent to note that, in the rejoinder she did not offer any comments regarding those contentions which are elaborately taken in written statement by the 1st Party alleging that, she committed misappropriation and lost confidence of the 1st Party. Hence, the case of loss of confidence made out by the 1st Party in the written statement is proved. Even she did not try to refer to it in her rejoinder and feel it necessary to comment on it.

15. When she admits that, she wrote the entry dated 24-1-2001 as shown on page 21 of Exhibit 21 and when she admits that, it is in her own handwriting, then doubt arises about her involvement in the transaction? On the contrary she admits by her own conduct and by her own act that, she indulged in that activity. Besides it is to be noted that, she was appointed on contract basis. Moreover, it is not denied by her that, her contract was not renewed after 31-12-2001. When her contract was not renewed and when she was not legally on the roll of the 1st Party after 31-12-2001, where question arises to issue charge sheet against her and give opportunity to her to explain the charges and ask her to face trial? In my considered view, when she admits all these things and when she suppressed all these things in her claims statement as well as in rejoinder vis-a-vis in her affidavit which she filed in lieu of the examination-in-chief at Exhibit 18, I am of the view that, she did not come with clean hands to claim the reliefs. Besides citation referred by the 2nd Party more precisely citation published in (1985) 3 SCC page 398 of Apex Court while deciding the case of Union of India vs. Tulsiram Patel & Ors. and citation published in 2005(2) LLN. P. 996 of Apex Court while deciding the case of Canara Bank v/s. V.K. Awasthi on the contrary goes against the 2nd Party and her demand. In both the cases according to me, the Apex Court observed that, in that case enquiry is not necessary. Other citations referred by the 2nd Party's Advocate are not helping to give relief to the concerned workman since they are on different facts and different footing. Besides case laws pointed out by the 1st Party's Advocate, are not exactly on the facts as happened in the instant case to justify the act of the 1st Party.

16. Considering all this coupled with the case made out by both, I conclude that, 2nd Party has no case and she cannot claim reinstatement and pray to quash and set aside the termination when 1st Party observed that, she lost the confidence of it.

17. Another ground taken by the 2nd Party that, amount/wages paid to her at the time of her termination were not legal and proper. As rightly pointed out by the 1st Party that, it is not the case of retrenchment but it is the case of termination. When it is not the case of the retrenchment but of termination, the amount admittedly offered and accepted by the 2nd Party are the legal dues offered by the 1st Party and 2nd Party is not entitled to get more than the amount offered by the 1st Party while serving notice of termination under challenge.

18. In view of the discussions made above I conclude that, the Management succeeds in showing that decision taken by it in termination the 2nd Party is reasonable and justified. So I answer this Issue to that effect.

ISSUE NO. 3:

19. 2nd Party pray that, the termination notice dated 29-3-2001 under challenge be quashed and set aside and she be reinstated with the benefits of back wages and continuity of service. As observed above 2nd Party is unable to show that, she was illegally terminated. Even she unable to show that, decision taken by the 2nd Party is not just and proper. Even she unable to show that, decision taken by the 1st Party without holding enquiry is objectionable. On the contrary 1st Party succeeds in showing that, since 2nd Party was contract worker, and her contract was not renewed after 31-12-2000 she is not entitled for any protection. Besides, 1st Party succeeds in showing that, she was involved in the misconduct. Even she admits said misconduct in her cross. Besides, she admits that, she depends on her husband and her husband is earning as he is earning. When she is not depending on her earning and when she is depending on her husband's earning and no liability is placed on record as she is not entitled for reinstatement, in my considered view, she is not entitled for any back wages. So I answer this Issue accordingly.

20. In view of the discussions made hereinabove I conclude that, the Reference deserves to be rejected. Hence, the order:

AWARD

The Government of India, Ministry of Labour, in exercise of the powers conferred on them under Section 10(1)(d) of the I.D. Act, 1947 has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication vide their Order No. L-20012/151/95-IR(C-I), dated, the 6th June, 1996.

SCHEDULE

"Whether the demand for proper placement of Sh. Ram Naresh Sao, Shakil Ahmad Khan, Ishrail Ansari, Jai Narayan Pandit and Kishori Prasad, Auto Electrician in Excvn. Grade 'C', 'B' & 'A' by management of Sijua Area of M/s. BCCL is justified and whether the management has discriminated as is alleged by Union? If so, what relief the concerned workmen are entitled from which date?"

2. The case of the workmen as per their W.S. is that all the concerned workmen named in the schedule in the reference are permanent employees of the company and posted at different units of Sijua Area of BCCL. It has been submitted that all the concerned workmen have been working as Auto Electrician in Excavation Discipline and were regularised in Excvn. Grade 'D' of different dates in 1983. The concerned workmen completed 3 years service by different dates in 1986 and they were eligible for promotion to next higher grade as per cadre scheme. The management promoted the concerned workmen except Ram Naresh Sao to Excavation Grade-C on different dates in 1988 and 1989 considering their merit, performance and conduct. The details date of promotion as stated in the W.S. of the workmen are as followings :—

- |                       |               |
|-----------------------|---------------|
| 1. Sakil Ahmad        | from 5-4-89   |
| 2. Md. Ishrail Ansari | from 23-5-88  |
| 3. Jai Narayan Pandit | from 5-4-89   |
| 4. Kishori Prasad     | from 5-4-89   |
| 5. Ram Naresh Sao     | Not promoted. |

The case of promotion of Shri Ram Naresh Sao was discriminated while his other colleagues were promoted. It has been stated by the workmen that Sri Ram Naresh Sao was placed in Excavation Grade 'D' w.e.f. 10-8-83 and other two workers namely Promod Kumar Singh who came to Excavation Grade 'D' on 10-8-83 had been promoted to Excavation Grade 'C' w.e.f. 24-2-87 while Sri Sao though in Excavation Grade 'D' from the same date was not promoted to next higher grade even in 1989. Though the concerned workmen were all senior to the said Sri Pradip Kumar Singh and Sri Pramod Kumar Singh were also not promoted in 1987 in contravention of the Cadre Scheme and Promotional Rules formulated by JBCCI. This pick and choose policy of the management created resentment and grievances and the union of the workmen raised an industrial dispute before the ALC(C), Dhanbad which was registered as Conciliation Case No. 1/101/93 E. 3 which ended in failure and the present reference has been made. However, in course of conciliation proceeding management promoted all the concerned workmen to Excavation Grade 'C' w.e.f. 24-2-87 by an Order dated 16/29-11-1993 giving the promotion with retrospective effect from 24-2-87 with notional Seniority but without any monetary benefit. Thus again the management acted in violation of the norms in so much so that the service condition of the workers. It has been further stated that the management has promoted two of the concerned workmen namely Sakil Ahmad Khan and Md. Ishrail Ansari to Excavation Grade 'B' from 29-10-94 ignoring the cases of the remaining concerned workmen for promotion to Excavation Grade-B although all of them had been promoted to Excavation Grade 'C' from the same date 24-2-87. It has been submitted by the Workmen that two other workers namely Birendra Kumar Singh and Dinesh Pd. Singh who were promoted to Excavation Grade-C from 23-5-88 and thus junior to all the concerned workmen, management ignoring the norms and adopting pick and choose policy promoted them to Excavation Grade 'B'. The Auto Electrician in Excavation Grade 'C', 'B' and 'A' have to perform similar and identical nature of duties and none of this grade requires any additional qualification for either of the three grades. It has been submitted that Ram Naresh Sao is entitled to be promoted to Excavation Grade 'C' from 10-8-1986, from 10-8-99 in Grade 'B' and from 10-8-92 in Grade 'A', Kishori Prasad is entitled to be promoted to Excavation Grade 'C' from 4-8-1986, in Grade 'B' from 4-8-89 and Grade 'A' from 4-8-92, Md. Ishrail Ansari is entitled to be promoted to Excavation Grade 'C' from 20-2-86, in Grade-B from 20-2-1989 and in Grade 'A' from 20-2-1992, Jai Narayan Pandit is entitled to be promoted to Excavation Grade 'C' from 29-3-1986, in Grade 'B' from 29-3-1989 and in Grade 'A' from 29-3-1992 and Sakil Ahmad Khan is entitled to be promoted to Excavation Grade 'C' from 20-2-1986, in Grade 'B' from 20-2-1989 and in Grade 'A' from 20-2-1992. It has been alleged that the management has not followed the promotion rules as per cadre scheme for the Auto Electricians and as a result the concerned workmen have been deprived of their legitimate grades and financial benefits. Accordingly it has been prayed on behalf of the workman to pass an Award directing the management to place the concerned workmen in Excavation Grade 'C', 'B' and 'A' respectively as stated above with full back wages and accompanying benefits.

3. In the W.S. filed by the management it has been stated that the present reference is not maintainable either in law or in facts. The demand of the Union for placement of the concerned workman in different Grade is not an industrial dispute rather it is unnecessary intervention of the Union in the managerial function of the employers. The terms of reference is vague and specific question has not been framed by the Ministry that which workman should be placed in which grade.

4. It has been stated by the management that the concerned workmen are working in different categories in Excavation Grade and the employers placed them in proper category according to the rules and provisions of the Cade Scheme in different grades from time to time. It has been further stated that a large number of workmen are working in Excavation Grade-C, B, and A and the union demanded only the promotion of few persons which is not maintainable. The concerned workmen were promoted in Excavation Grade-D as Auto Electrician sometime in the year 1983 and subsequently they were promoted in different grades as per their merit and vacancies. The employers never discriminated in promoting any workman concerned in any grade. There is no merit in the present industrial dispute. Accordingly it has been prayed by the management to pass an Award rejecting the claim of the concerned workmen.

5. Both parties have filed their respective rejoinders admitting and denying the contents of some of the paras of each other's W.S.

6. In this case management has produced and examined Shri Narendra Pratap Singh as MW-1 who has supported the case of the management. On the other hand workmanside has produced and examined Md. Israil Ansari as WW-1 and Ram Naresh Sao as WW-2.

7. Main argument advanced on behalf of the workmen is that the concerned workmen were not given promotion at the relevant time by the management from Grade-C to B and from B to A i.e. Shri Ram Naresh Sao—Grade 'C' from 10-8-1986, Grade B from 10-8-1989, Grade-A from 10-8-1992, Shri Kishori Prasad—Grade 'C' from 4-8-1986, Grade 'B' from 4-8-1989, Grade—A from 4-3-1992, Shri Israil Ansari—Grade C from 20-2-86 Grade 'B' from 20-2-1989, Grade A from 20-2-1992, Sri Jai Narayan Pandit—Grade 'C' from 29-3-1986, Grade 'B' from 29-3-1989, Grade 'A' from 20-2-1992, Shri Sakil Ahmad Khan—Grade-C from 20-2-1986, Grade 'B' from 20-2-1989, Grade-A from 20-2-92. In this respect as per paras 7 and 11 of the W.S. of the workmen all the concerned workmen have been promoted to Excavation Grade 'C' by an order dated 16/29-11-1993 issued by the management giving the promotion with retrospective effect from 24-2-87 with notional seniority without any monetary benefit. It has been stated that the action of the management is not justified because they have not been promoted according to the rules of the promotion and there is anomaly in the matter of the promotion of the concerned workmen. Accordingly they should be given promotion from the dates claimed in their W.S.

8. The concerned workman WW-1 has stated in his cross-examination "We had agreed that we should be given notional seniority in Grade. 'C' from the year 1987 which has been complied by the management." This statement of workman shows that there is no grievance against the management because management has given notional seniority with effect from 1987 which has been agreed by the concerned workmen. He also stated in cross-examination "Thereafter we have been allowed in Grade 'B' also during the pendency of the reference case. Promotion to the next grade is not automatic on completion of three years, rather we have to face D.P.C." In this respect WW-2 stated contradictory that generally on completion of 3 years promotion is given on the basis of D.P.C but there are instances in which promotion has been given in order to remove anomaly. It shows that both the witnesses stated that promotion is given on the basis of D.P.C. WW-2 stated in his cross-examination that promotion in next higher grade is given on accrual of vacancy and passing the D.P.C. It, therefore, shows that without D.P.C. no promotion can be given only on completion of 3 years or 5 years. Moreover, WW-1 has stated that they were all promoted.

9. Ld. Counsel for the management argued that promotion cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Promotion is done according to the D.P.C. which has been supported by WW-1 and WW-2 as they have stated that promotion is based on D.P.C. So on D.P.C. MW-1 has stated that there is no vacancy at present in Category A. So without vacancy no promotion can be given and no grade can be given to any of the workmen including the concerned workmen. Management's Office Order No. GM/SA/PD:3A/20/9649 dated 16/29-11-1993 shows that the concerned workmen were given promotion to Grade-C from 24-2-87 which has been admitted by the concerned workmen in their W.S. So it shows that anomaly has been removed by the management and by order dated 10/11-11-1994 WW-1 has been promoted in Excavation Grade-B By Order dated 11/22-10-1993 anomaly has been removed by the management giving promotion from Grade-C to Grade-B from 24-2-87 to 16-11-90 and as per statement of MW-1 there is no vacancy in Category-A. So no promotion can be made in Cat. A by the management. In the result, the following Award is rendered :—

"The demand for proper placement of Ram Naresh Sao, Shakil Ahmad Khan, Israil Ansari, Jai Narain Pandit and Kishore Prasad, Auto Electrician in Excavation Grade, C, B & A by the management of Sijua Area is justified. So far placement of the concerned workmen to Grade-C and from Grade-C to B is concerned management has already given promotion to them. With regard to promotion from Grade-B to Grade-A is concerned, management is directed to promote the concerned workmen as and when vacancy will arise following the procedures of D.P.C. Under the above circumstances question of discrimination, as alleged by the union, does not arise."

1. By order No. L-22012/496/99-IR (C-II) dated: 19-5-2004 the Central Government in the Ministry of Labour, New Delhi in exercise of powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) referred this industrial dispute between the State Secretary, Bhartiya Khadya Nigam Karmachari Sangh, 5-6, Habibullah Estate, Hazratganj, Lucknow (Espousing case of Shri S. C. Rastogi) and the Sr. Regional Manager, Food Corporation of India, 5-6, Habibullah Estate, Hazratganj, Lucknow & the Distt. Manager, Food Corporation of India, Bhotia Parav, Haldwani for adjudication.

2. The reference under adjudication is :

1. Whether the action of the management of FCI, Lucknow for recovery of Rs. 30,400 from Shri S. C. Rastogi vide its order dated 23-9-96 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?”

2. Whether the action of the management of FCI, Lucknow in imposing recovery of Rs. 54,297.50 on Shri S. C. Rastogi vide its order dated 12-8-96 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?”

3. Whether the action of the management of FCI, Haldwani in imposing recovery of half of Rs. 5,574.40 on Shri S. C. Rastogi vide its order dated 4-9-98 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?”

4. Whether the action of the management of FCI, Haldwani in imposing recovery of Rs. 1,842.60 on Shri S. C. Rastogi vide its order dated 21/24-8-98 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?"

5. Whether the action of the management of FCI, Haldwani in imposing recovery of cost of 39-28-400 Qlts. of wheat vide its order dated 6-10-98 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?"

6. Whether the action of the management of FCI, Haldwani in imposing recovery of Rs. 5005.75 on Shri S. C. Rastogi vide its order dated 2/9-10-97 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?"

2. The case of the workman is that he was served upon various charge sheets and consequent penalties by the management of FCI at different point of time. The gist of the charge sheets/penalties which were imposed upon the workman and the ground on which he has questioned the impugned orders are enumerated hereunder :

(i) The workman was served upon a charge sheet dated 3-5-95 and the Inquiry was held subsequent thereto. The Inquiry Officer concluded his enquiry with the charges not proved. The worker has alleged that the management of FCI, Lucknow in disagreement to the findings of Inquiry officer, without giving any valid reason, passed order dated 23-9-96 for recovery of Rs. 30,400, in violation of Regulation 59(2) of Staff Regulations 1971.

(ii) The management of FCI, Lucknow served another charge sheet dated 15-3-96 upon the workman under Regulation 60 of the Staff Regulations, 1971 and the workman replied for the same vide his reply dated 4-4-96. The workman has alleged that the management disagreeing with his reply imposed a penalty of recovery of Rs. 54,297.50 vide their order dated 12-8-96.

(iii) The workman has alleged that the management of FCI, Haldwani in most arbitrary and illegal manner imposed recovery of half of Rs. 55,742.40, without issuing any charge sheet to him, vide order dated 4-9-98. The workman represented against order dated 4-9-98 with no results.

(iv) The management of FCI, Haldwani again imposed penalty dated 24-8-98 for recovery of Rs. 1842.60 without any charge sheet.

(v) The management of FCI, Haldwani repeated the same illegality for the third time and imposed another penalty dated 6-10-98 and ordered to recover cost of 39-28-400 Quintals wheat from the workman without any charge sheet.

3. The workman has further stated that the management of FCI withdrawn the penalty order dated 9-10-97, therefore, he has not made any claim against said penalty order dated 9-10-97. The workman has further submitted that the management of FCI has wrongly observed that increase in percentage of moisture contents would increase the weight and therefore, has alleged that the aforesaid penalty order were passed by the management of FCI without application of mind and purely arbitrary and illegal manner. Accordingly, the workman has prayed that the penalty order dated 23-9-96 and 12-8-96 passed by FCI, Lucknow and penalty order dated 24-8-98, 4-9-98 and 6-10-98, passed by FCI, Haldwani may be set aside.

4. The management of FCI has filed its written statement denying the claim of workman wherein it has defended its action in imposing various penalties on the workman. The brief description of the defence of the management in rebuttal of the claim of the workman is pinpointed hereunder:

(i) The management of FCI has accepted issuance of charge sheet and inquiry report of the Inquiry Officer where he found charges to be not proved, but it has specifically mentioned that the Disciplinary Authority did not agree with the findings of the Inquiry Officer and after recording reasons thereof imposed the penalty order dated 23-9-96 upon the workman and it does not suffer with any illegality.

(ii) Regarding penalty order dated 12-8-96, it is admitted by the management that a charge sheet dated 15-3-96 under Regulation 60 of the FCI (Staff) Regulations, 1971 was issued. Also, the management of FCI has stated that the workman has rightly been punished with recovery vide order dated 12-8-96.

(iii) The management has submitted that it was noting wrong at any point of time while imposing penalty order dated 4-9-98 upon the workman and his representation against said penalty order has not been received by the Regional Office yet by the reason of not having been made through proper channel.

(iv) It has been stated by the management that the FCI suffered loss of Rs. 3,685.20 towards 08.88.000 Quintals storage loss due to negligence of workman and another Shri D. P. Singh and accordingly, proportionately recovery of 50% was imposed on the workman and Shri D. P. Singh. Since the loss was evident the charge sheet was given and no prejudice was caused upon the workman and, accordingly, he was penalized.

(v) As regard penalty order dated 6-10-98 the management of FCI has submitted that due to negligence of the workman and one Shri S. Rabbani, TA Grade I, FCI suffered loss of 39-28-400 Quintals of wheat and the representation of the workman in this regard being unsatisfactory he was imposed penalty vide order dated 6-10-98.

5. The management of FCI has stated that the contents of course material on the principles of grain storage to show that there is deterioration in stocks as a result of development of micro-organism and insect due to high moisture content in food grain are not attracted in the present case of the workman. The management has further submitted that the present matter was earlier referred by the Ministry vide order No. L-22012/496/99-IR (C-II) dated 19-5-2004 which was registered as I. D. No. 87 of 2000 and the same was rejected by this Tribunal with observation that in the reference, more than one dispute raised are clubbed, while only one dispute can be raised at one time. The management has mentioned that the schedule of reference under adjudication includes different penalty orders by different Disciplinary Authorities, some after inquiry and some without enquiry, thus, they have different facts and footings and therefore, their merit cannot be taken into account in one industrial dispute. As per averment of the management the same technical flaw as observed earlier has been repeated in the present reference order also accordingly, same is liable to be rejected.

6. The workman has filed rejoinder wherein he has only reiterated his averment made in the statement of claim and nothing new has been uttered by him.

7. The parties have filed documents in support of their respective cases including charge sheets, inquiry report and penalty order etc. The workman has examined himself whereas the management has examined Sh. R. C. Singh, AGI (D). The parties cross-examined each other and filed written argument apart from making oral submissions.

8. Heard arguments of learned representative of the parties and perused evidence on record.

9. Before going into the merits of the reference under adjudication the preliminary objection raised by the opposite party regarding maintainability of the reference may be considered.

10. It is contended by the learned representative on behalf of the opposite party that prior to present reference the earlier reference on the same facts I. D. No. 87/2000 was dismissed by this Tribunal with the observation that more than one disputes raised by the workman have been clubbed in the reference, while only one dispute can be raised at one time despite this the parties are same in the present reference, six industrial disputes raised by the workman have been clubbed in the reference. Earlier for all issues only one issue was framed in the reference whereas in instant reference six issues have been framed for different penalty orders. Thus on this ground reference is not maintainable and claim statement is liable to be dismissed.

11. The learned representative on behalf of the workman has submitted that second reference is maintainable. There is no bar in the I. D. Act for referring all the disputes in one reference. In this regard he has relied on 2002 (94) FLR 624 between Virendra Bhandari vs. RRTC & other wherein Hon'ble Supreme Court has laid down that when there is no adjudication of the earlier reference on merits it cannot be said that industrial dispute does not exist and if industrial dispute still exist, such a matter can be again be referred under section 10 of Industrial Disputes Act 1947. It is permissible for court for have made the second reference.

12. Admittedly, the facts of the present reference and earlier reference are same, in earlier reference separate issues were not framed whereas in instant reference six separate issues have been framed for each impugned penalty order and it is also not disputed that earlier reference was not decided on merit, therefore, in view of the aforementioned legal position present reference is maintainable.

13. In light of the above legal position, the preliminary objection regarding maintainability of reference is not sustainable.

Order Dated: 23-9-1996:

14. The workman was served statement of articles of charges along with statement of imputation of misconduct vide memo dated 3-5-95 for alleged misconduct of misappropriation of 80 bages of wheat and for arranging 23 'B' class gunnies bearing private marks for misappropriation of wheat stock from Sultan Hussain godown, Rampur where he was posted as incharge of the said unit and causing financial loss of 30,400 to the FCI.

15. The Inquiry Officer found the charges not proved in his report dated 14-3-96. The inquiry report was served upon the workman by means of memo dated 26/29-3-96. The workman submitted his representation dated 17-4-96, stating therein that nothing has been said against him in the inquiry report, as such, he is unable to make any representation against it. The Disciplinary Authority disagreeing with the finding of the Inquiry Officer, imposed penalty of censure and recovery of Rs. 30,400 from the workman vide impugned order dated 22-9-96.

16. The workman has challenged the above impugned order on the ground that the Disciplinary Authority has disagreed with the just and legal findings of the Inquiry Officer without any valid reason and it is alleged that penalty order is arbitrary, illegal and bad in eye of law.

17. In this respect the workman has stated in his statement on oath that the disciplinary authority has wrongly and illegally disagreed with findings of the Enquiry Officer without giving any show cause notice for disagreement with the findings of the Inquiry Officer. The impugned order has been passed in violation of principle of natural justice which has caused prejudice to him.

18. In rebuttal the management witness, Shri R. C. Singh has stated that the Disciplinary Authority under service Regulation is having power to disagree with the findings of the Inquiry Officer and the Disciplinary Authority after recording the reasons could punish the delinquent.

19. The learned representative on behalf of the workman has argued that the Disciplinary Authority has wrongly and illegally imposed penalty vide order dated 23-9-96 without show cause notice for disagreement with the findings of Inquiry Officer and the case of the workman has been prejudiced. He has relied on 2006 SCC (L&S) 1035.

20. Per contra, the learned representative on behalf of the opposite party has urged that the Disciplinary Authority has passed the impugned order after serving the inquiry report and considering the representation of the workman. Therefore, prior to passing impugned order full opportunity has been given to the workman.

21. In SBI & others Vs. Arvind Kr. Shukla 2006 SCC (L&S) 1035 the question under consideration was whether in case where the disciplinary authority disagrees with the inquiry officer on certain articles of charges, then before it records its findings of such charge, it is duty bound to record its tentative reasons for such disagreement and give the same to the delinquent officer, an opportunity to represent before it ultimately records its findings. Hon'ble Apex Court following the earlier decision in PNB case (1998) 7 SCC 84 observed that if findings are in favour of charged employee and disciplinary authority takes a different view then disciplinary authority is required to record its tentative reasons therefore and give it to the delinquent officer for giving him an opportunity to represent before recording its ultimate findings.

22. In instant case, the Inquiry Officer found charges against the workman not proved, but the Disciplinary Authority has disagreed with the conclusion and findings arrived at by the Inquiry Officer. Before passing impugned order and imposing penalty on the workman, the Disciplinary Authority has served the memo dated 29-3-96 along with inquiry report. In said memo it is mentioned that "the Disciplinary Authority will take a suitable decision after considering the report. If Shri S.C. Rastogi, AG II (D) wishes to make any representation or submission, he may do so in writing to the Disciplinary Authority within ten days of receipt of the letter".

23. In above memo the Disciplinary Authority has not mentioned that he was going to disagree with the finding of the Inquiry Officer. No tentative reasons for disagreement have been mentioned. Since in the inquiry report charges were found not proved therefore, there was nothing against the workman so as to represent against the same.

24. Since in the light of principle laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in aforesaid mentioned case law no opportunity was given to the workman to represent against the tentative reasons for disagreement with the finding of the Inquiry Officer, the impugned order is against the principle of natural justice and bad in law. Therefore, answer to the point No. 1 of the reference is in negative.

Impugned Order Dated: 12-8-1996:

25. A statement of imputation of misconduct for proposed action was served vide memo dated 15-3-96 for alleged misconduct of misappropriation of wheat causing loss of Rs. 1,27,402.50 to the organization was served upon the workman for submitting his representation against the same.

26. The workman replied that charge sheet vide letter dated 4-4-1996, but the Disciplinary Authority after considering the reply passed penalty order dated 12-8-96 wherein penalty of recovery of Rs.54,297.50 has been imposed upon the workman. The workman has questioned the above impugned order on the ground that his representation was not considered in accordance with law and reasons for disagreement with the reply of the workman have not been given in the penalty order. It is not disclosed from where the percentage of moisture contents were taken, which is basis of the entire charges. There is no evidence to prove the correctness of the moisture contents.

27. The workman has deposed in his statement on oath that Sr. RM did not consider his representation dated 4-4-96. He has not given any finding on the article of charges contained in the charge sheet dated 15-3-96 and passed impugned order dated 12-8-96 illegally and arbitrarily. He has further stated that basis of the case of those movement challan which were filed by the department with the reply to the charge sheet and referred in the impugned order were summoned but it has not been supplied.

28. The management witness has stated that alleged photocopies of challan have not found in office record.

29. The learned representative on behalf of the workman has contended that impugned order Sr. R M did not consider the representation of the workman, therefore, order is illegal and arbitrary. He has further argued that opposite party has not produced the disciplinary authority to justify the punishment order. The management witness has stated in cross-examination that he did not know about this case as it was dealt by Regional Office, Lucknow and he was posted in Haldwani. Whereas learned representative on behalf of opposite party has urged that impugned order has been passed after giving full opportunity to the workman and after considering his representation against the same.

30. Rule 60 of Staff Regulation 1971 is pertaining to procedure for imposing minor penalty which envisages that subject to provisions of sub regulation (3) of Regulation 59, no order imposing on an employee any of the penalties specified in clause (i) to (iv) of Regulation 54 shall be made except after :

(a) informing the employee in writing of the proposal to take action against him and imputation of misconduct or misbehaviour on which it is proposed to be taken, and giving him a reasonable opportunity of making such representation as he may wish to make against the proposal;

(b) holding an inquiry in the manner laid down in Sub-regulation (3) to (23) of Regulation 58, in every case in which the disciplinary authority is of the opinion that such inquiry is necessary;

(c) taking the representation, if any, submitted by the employee under clause (a) and the record of inquiry, if any, held under clause (b) into consideration;

(d) recording a finding on each imputation of misconduct or misbehaviour.

31. As per above Rule 60 if the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that inquiry is necessary then only inquiry is to be conducted. A statement of imputation of misconduct for proposed action was served upon the workman for alleged misconduct of misappropriation of wheat vide memo dated 15-3-96. The representation dated 4-4-96 has been considered. Thus procedure under Rule 60 of Staff Regulation 1971 has been complied with.

32. The contention of the learned representative on behalf of the workman that Disciplinary Authority has not been examined to justify his order, is devoid of any force. The workman has challenged the impugned order therefore; burden was on him to prove that said order is illegal or arbitrary, and not on the opposite party to prove that impugned order is legal.

33. The fact of the Hardeari Lal case relied on in this respect are different. In above case during the proceeding of enquiry material witness were not examined therefore, Hon'ble Apex Court held that inquiry vitiated being in violation of principle of natural justice. The present case inquiry was not essential under Regulation 60 of Staff Regulation 1971. Thus question of withholding witness in inquiry proceedings does not arise. Above ruling is not applicable in the matter of reference under adjudication.

Impugned Order Dated: 4-9-1998, 21/24-8-1998 & 6-10-1998:

34. Since the common question included in all the three impugned orders, as such, the same are being dealt simultaneously. Vide impugned order dated 4-9-1998, 21/

24-8-1998 & 6-10-1998 imposing penalty of recovery of Rs. 2,787.20, Rs. 1,842.60 and recovery of cost of 30-28-400 Qlts. of wheat respectively have been imposed. The above impugned orders have been challenged on the ground that the orders have been passed without any charge sheet to the workman in violation of principle of natural justice.

35. Admittedly, aforesaid impugned orders of recovery have been issued without conducting any inquiry. As per Regulation 54 (3) of the Staff Regulation recovery for any pecuniary loss caused to the Corporation by negligence or breach of order is a minor penalty. Regulation 60 is pertaining of procedure for imposing minor penalty. Regulation 60 envisages that subject to provisions of sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 59, no order imposing on an employee any of the penalties specified in clause (i) to (iv) of Regulation 54 shall be made except after informing for the employee of alleged misconduct and giving him a reasonable opportunity of making representation.

36. In instant case the provisions under Regulation 60 have not been complied with before passing aforesaid impugned orders, therefore, they are against the principles of natural justice and bad in law.

Impugned Order Dated: 2/9-10-97:

37. Admittedly the action of the management of FCI, Haldwani in imposing recovery of Rs. 5005.75 on the workman vide impugned order dated 2/9-10-97 has been withdrawn as per averments in the statement of claim. Since the workman has admitted that no claim against the impugned order is being made. There is no need to decide the above issue on merit.

38. The contention of the learned representative on behalf of workman for drawing adverse inference against the opposite party on the ground of non-production of alleged challans during proceeding of reference is concerned, is also not tenable. In this regard Sr. RM in the impugned order dated 12-8-96 has observed that total storage loss has been worked out to 217.19.000 quintals valued at Rs. 54,297.50 only. In para two of the impugned order he has observed that on examination of representation of the workman it has been found that explanation submitted by workman are not convincing. In this regard para 3 of the impugned order is also relevant, which is as under:

"I find that said Shri S. C. Rastogi, AG-II (D) has disputed the moisture content to be incorrect but furnished no proof in support of his contention. He has simply enclosed photocopies of movement challans which do not make evident the moisture percentage noticed at the time of receipt of stocks. Movement Challans submitted by him with his representation are irrelevant documents with regard to moisture content noticed at the time of receipt of stocks. Thus, Shri Rastogi has utterly failed to prove his innocence and cannot be absolved of the charges leveled against him."

39. In representation submitted by the workman against statement of imputation for proposed action dated 15-3-96, there is endorsement regarding enclosure of copies of challans. In the impugned order it has been observed that explanation of the workman is not convincing and the copies of the challans are not relevant documents. It is evident from the impugned order itself that explanation of the workman along with endorsed alleged copies of challans have been considered at the time of passing the order.

40. It is well settled legal position that the Tribunal would not interfere with the findings recorded by the Disciplinary Authority or Inquiry Officer as a matter of course. The Tribunal cannot sit in appeal over these findings and assume the role of Appellate Authority. The Tribunal cannot reconsider or reappraise the evidence and substitute its own conclusion in place of conclusion arrived on record by the Disciplinary Authority or Inquiry Officer, unless there is violation of principle of natural justice or it is perverse. The Sr. RM, Regional Officer, Lucknow, in the impugned order, has found explanation submitted by the workman unsatisfactory and the photocopies of movement challans irrelevant documents as regard to moisture content noted at the time of receipt. The Disciplinary Authority has arrived on above conclusion after considering representation and copies of the challans submitted by the workman. The Tribunal is not supposed to substitute its own conclusion in place of conclusion arrived at by the Disciplinary Authority on the material on record before it.

41. The learned representative on behalf of the workman has also contended that under Regulation 60, authority has to record a finding on each imputation of misconduct or misbehaviour. The management has to prove the charges independently on the basis of evidence on record. In this regard he has placed reliance on Govind Lal Srivastava Vs. State of U.P. 2005 (23) LCD 495.

42. This legal position is not disputed that charges have to be proved by the department itself by the material on record and the delinquent officer is not required to disprove the charges before being put to prove by the Inquiry Officer. But the facts of the case law cited above are distinguishable, the above case law cited was pertaining to domestic inquiry in a matter of major penalty whereas the instant case is pertaining to minor penalty. Moreover, in the impugned order dated 12-8-96, there is finding as regards alleged misconduct of the workman. Therefore, in view of above the contentions of the learned representative on behalf of the workman are not sustainable.

43. Since, except point No. 2 of the reference, other point Nos. 1, 3, 4 & 5 have been decided in favour of the workman, the impugned orders dated 23-9-96, 4-9-98, 21/24-8-98 and 6-10-98 are liable to be set aside as the same being against the principle of natural justice.

44. The point No. 2 of the reference pertaining to impugned order dated 12-8-96 has been decided against the workman. As regards amount of recovery as penalty is concerned, it is pertinent to mention that penalty of recovery of Rs. 54, 297.50 has been imposed by the impugned order dated 12-8-96 whereas as per order ref. 19 (1)/SL/Rampur/98-99/4421 dated 4-9-98 of the District Manager, FCI, Haldwani, which is on record, the above amount was to be recovered in equal proportionate of the amount in easy and equal 36 monthly installments from the salary of the workman and another workman, Shri D. P. Singh, Tech. Asstt. Grade-I, therefore, in view of the aforesaid letter of the opposite party only half of the amount imposed in the impugned order dated 12-8-96 is recoverable as penalty.

45. As regard point No. 6 of reference, it is not disputed that the impugned order has been withdrawn and there is no claim pertaining to above impugned order.

46. Accordingly, in view of aforesaid discussion, point No. 2 of the reference is adjudicated partially against the workman and only 50% of the penalty amount of Rs. 54, 297.50 is recoverable from the workman. The point Nos. 1, 3, 4 & 5 of the reference order are adjudicated in favour of the workman and impugned orders dated 23-9-96, 4-9-98, 21/24-8-98 and 6-10-98 are set aside. As regard point No. 6 of the reference no claim award is passed.

47. Award as above.

1. By order No. L-22012/301/2003-IR (CM-II) dated: 23-6-2004 the Central Government in the Ministry of Labour, New Delhi in exercise of powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) referred this industrial dispute between the President Bhartiya Khadya Nigam Karmachari Sangh, 60/4, Sanjay Place, Agra, U.P. (Espousing case of Shri Bhule Ram) and the Sr. Regional Manager, Food Corporation of India, 5-6, Habibullah Estate, Hazratganj, Lucknow for adjudication.

2. The reference under adjudication is:

“क्या चरिष्ठ क्षेत्रीय प्रबंधक, भारतीय खाद्य निगम, लखनऊ के आदेश दिनांक 21-1-1999 द्वारा भूले राम, वॉचमैन की संचयी प्रभाव से (With cumulative effect) ( दो वेतन वृद्धियां रोकना न्यायौचित् है? यदि नहीं, तो संबंधित कर्मकार किस अनुतोष का हकदार है?”

3. In brief, the case of the workman is that he with another Shri Bani Singh, A.G. III (D) was charge sheeted and penalized by the management of FCI by means of an order which caused to withholding of his two increments of pay with cumulative effect, without charges having been proved against him in the inquiry. The workman has stated that the Disciplinary Authority in its penalty order has observed that the charge of collusion is partially proved. He has submitted that no penalty can be imposed for charge, unless the same is fully proved and also the Disciplinary Authority has not furnished substantial grounds as to his differing with the Inquiry Officer's findings. The other co-accused Shri Bani Singh too was imposed penalty of withholding of three increments with cumulative effect and his appeal before Appellate Authority too was rejected vide order dated 9-5-2001. Subsequently, the penalty order in respect of Shri Bani Singh was held 'bad in law' by the Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Kanpur vide its award dated 17-12-97 and the management of FCI made available all benefits to Shri Bani Singh, consequent to said award. The workman, since his case is identical to the case of Bani Singh, has prayed that the order of penalty against him be set aside and be given all consequential benefits along with full pay and allowances, admissible under rules, for entire suspension period.

4. The management of FCI has filed its written statement denying the claim of the workman, wherein it has stated that the workman and Shri Bani Singh were served with the different charge sheets including different charges taking into the account of role of the employees concerned and they were dealt with on the basis of individual merits by two different inquiry officers. It is further stated that the workman was charge sheeted for misappropriation and the penalty has been imposed by the Disciplinary Authority, in accordance with the FCI Staff Regulation, 1971 vide order dated 21-1-99 after taking into consideration the inquiry report of the Inquiry Officer and role and degree of accountability of the workman and the same has upheld by the Appellate Authority also.

5. The workman in his rejoinder, apart from reiterating the earlier averments made by him in the statement of claim, has mentioned that the act of the management of conducting two different enquiries for similarly situated cases on the basis of status of employees is entirely violative of rules of departmental enquiry.

6. The parties have filed documents in support of their respective contentions including copies of the charge sheet, inquiry report and penalty order etc. The workman has examined himself as witness whereas the management has examined Sh. S. K. Singh, Asstt. Manager (Retd.) as witness. Both the sides have filed written argument, apart from making oral submissions.

7. Heard arguments of learned representative of both the parties and perused relevant record.

8. The learned representative on behalf of the union has contended that the case of the workman Bhule Ram is exactly identical to the case of Bani Singh and the award passed by CGIT, Kanpur in favour of Bani Singh, has been fully implemented by the FCI, therefore, the workman is also entitled to the benefit of the above award. He has further contended that when charges have been found partially proved, how the workman can be punished on presumption. He has also contended that the Enquiry

Report is vague and self contradictory. The keys of the godown were with the incharge, Sh. R. C. Sharma and the workman was not on duty on 12-2-86. The workman has been made scapegoat in this matter. He has relied on following case law in support of his contentions:

(i) (2002) 7 SCC 142 Sher Bahadur vs. Union of India & others.

(ii) (1999) 2 SCC 10 Kuldeep Singh vs. Commissioner of Police & others.

9. Per contra, the learned representative on behalf of management has urged that watchman is fully responsible for any loss or damages or theft as per clause 3.14 of the security manual. The workman was charged together with other workman in category III & IV and all of them were punished through respective penalty orders. The workman cannot claim parity as other charged workman were having different enquiry officer and enquiries were conducted on the basis of separate merit in each case.

10. I have given thoughtful consideration on the arguments advanced by learned representative of both the sides.

11. It is pertinent to mention that the workman and other delinquents with whom collusion for misappropriation of 730 bags of wheat was alleged in the charge, separate enquiries were conducted and all were punished through respective penalty orders of the disciplinary authority and copies of above order are on record. It is also evident from the record that appeal preferred against the said orders were rejected. Shri Bani Singh who was also impleaded in this case along with Bhule Ram & others, a penalty of withholding of three increments with cumulative effect was ordered. Both Bhule Ram, workman and Bani Singh, workman preferred appeal before the Appellate Authority, which were rejected. Shri Bani Singh raised an industrial dispute before concerned authority and ultimately a reference was made to CGIT, Kanpur, which adjudicated the case in favour of the workman. The copy of the award dated 17-12-97 though not legible, is also on record. The above award has been fully implemented by the FCI in the case of Bani Singh vide order dated 11-6-1999 of the Sr. RM, FCI, Kanpur.

12. At the outset it may be mentioned that it is not evident from the above factual backdrop that the Enquiry Officer or the Disciplinary Authority has discriminated in any manner in the matter of similar situated workman. The workman and Shri Bani Singh workman, both have been found guilty for alleged charges against them and penalty of withholding grade increments with cumulative effect has been imposed and respective penalty orders have been upheld by the Competent Appellate Authority. Ultimately if the CGIT, Kanpur has passed an award in favour of Shri Bani Singh workman, it cannot be said that in view of the above award, the impugned order dated 21-1-99 is not just.

13. It is not disputed that 730 bags of wheat stocks and 31 BT 'A' class gunnies were found lost. It is also not disputed that when physical verification was conducted on 21-6-86, no shortage were reported and when again on 15-2-86 physical verification was conducted shortage of 730 bags wheat in 9 different stocks were reported and for above shortage, a FIR for that was lodged by the unit in charge of the godown Sh. R. C. Sharma AGI (D) which resulted in final report. Subsequently, the unit incharge and other workmen were charge sheeted for alleged misappropriation of the 730 bags of wheat.

14. The question for consideration is whether impugned order is in violation of principles of natural justice or in contravention of relevant rules of domestic inquiry.

15. In this respect the para 'V' of the Enquiry Report is very relevant wherein the Enquiry Officer has given findings as under:

"It is also note worthy to point out that prosecution has failed to pin point the responsibility of the S. O. to the extent he is responsible either through any document or through its witnesses. On perusal of stock wise register Ex-P-7 it reveals that on 21-1-86 when PV was conducted no shortage were reported and when again PV on 15-2-86 was conducted shortage of 730 bags wheat in 9 different stocks were reported as such mis-appropriation of said bags must have been taken place in between 22-1-1986 to 12-2-1986 (on date Unite Incharge reported the shortage) though as per Gate pass register (Ex-P-11) stocks have been moved/issued to Rail Head/Ms Roller Floor Mill on 10-2-1986."

16. After above observation he has given his conclusion of the enquiry as under:—

"The charge of collusion is partially proved as it cannot be ruled out."

17. The disciplinary authority after considering the Enquiry Report and the representation dated 7-3-98 given by the workman against the finding of the enquiry report, passed impugned order dated 21-1-99 whereby penalty of stoppage of two increments with cumulative effect has been imposed on the workman.

18. In support the claim, the workman Bule Ram has stated in his statement on oath that in enquiry report charge against him has been found partially proved and it is mentioned in the report that prosecution could not produced any document or witness to prove the charge. He has further stated that on the date of alleged occurrence, he was not on duty and his duty was from 8 AM to 4 PM, subsequent to his duty hours, other workmen used to give duty and at the time of alleged occurrence other workmen, Lal Singh, S. N. Chaturvedi and Hari Prasad were on duty. He has also stated that keys of the godown used to be kept by incharge R. C. Sharma. He has also alleged that impugned order has been passed without giving notice to him.

19. In rebuttal the management witness Shri S. K. Singh, Assistant Manager, FCI, FSD, Agra Cantt has stated that he was team which physically verified the stock and 730 bags of wheat and gunnies were found short. In this matter 7 class IV employee, 2 Assistant Class II, 1 unit incharge AGI and Asstt. Manager of the unit were charge sheeted and after enquiry penalty was imposed. He has further stated that R. C. Sharma was dismissed from service and against B. L. Dinesh and Bani Singh a penalty of withholding of 3 grade increment with cumulative effect was imposed. In cross-examination he has stated that last inspection of the godown was done on 10-2-86. He has also stated that 730 bags cannot be stolen in one day. Keys of the godown are being kept by incharge.

20. It is well settled legal position that Tribunal would not interfere with the findings recorded at the departmental enquiry by the disciplinary authority or enquiry officer as a matter of course. The Tribunal cannot sit in appeal over these findings and assume the role of the appellate authority. But this does not mean that in no circumstance can the Tribunal interfere. If enquiry is in violation of principle of natural justice or if the findings of the enquiry are perverse then Tribunal is empowered to interfere with the conclusions reached therein.

21. In (1999) 2 SCC 10 Kuldeep Singh Vs. Commissioner of Police & others Hon'ble Apex Court has observed that if there is no evidence to support the findings or the findings recorded were such as could not have been reached by an ordinary prudent man or finding were perverse or made at the dictation of superior authority, court can interfere with the conclusion. After referring earlier decision Hon'ble Apex Court has laid down as under :

"A broad distinction has, therefore, to be maintained between the decisions which are perverse and those which are not. If a decision is arrived at on no evidence or evidence which is thoroughly unreliable and no reasonable person would act upon it, the order would be perverse. But if there is some evidence on record which is acceptable and which could be relied upon, howsoever compendious it may be, the conclusions would not be treated as perverse and the findings would not be interfered with."

22. This legal position is also not disputed that the Tribunal cannot re-examine, reappraise the evidence and substitute its own conclusion in place of conclusions arrived by the inquiry officer on the basis of evidence adduced during the proceedings of domestic enquiry; but to arrive on conclusion, some evidence with some degree of definiteness must be there.

23. In instant case the inquiry officer observed in the concluding para of the inquiry report that prosecution has failed to pin point the responsibility of the workman to the extent he is responsible either through any document or through its witnesses. The inquiry officer has found alleged charges against the workman partially proved on the ground that wheat bags must have been misappropriated during period 22-1-86 to 12-2-86 and during above period the workman was posted as watchman, therefore, his collusion cannot be ruled out because such huge stock of 730 bags of wheat trucks or buggies at one span of time. He has drawn an inference on the basis of probability that involvement of the workman in alleged collusion for misappropriation cannot be ruled out in view of the huge quantity. It is evident from the enquiry report itself that prosecution failed to adduce any documentary or oral evidence to substantiate the charges levelled against the workman. He has presumed involvement of the workman without considering this fact that misappropriation might have taken place when the workman was not on duty during the said period. The findings of the inquiry officer is based on mere suspicion but suspicion how so strong it may be, it cannot take place of the proof. In (2002) 7 SCC 142 Hon'ble Apex Court while considering the matter of domestic enquiry has held that :

"The expression 'sufficiency of evidence' postulates existence of some evidence which links the charged officer with the misconduct alleged against him. Evidence which is neither relevant in a broad sense nor establishes any nexus between the alleged misconduct and the charged officer, is no evidence in law."

24. In the present case there is no such evidence which links the workman with the alleged misconduct against him. Thus, the findings of the inquiry officer are hypothetical and based on conjectures and surmises and therefore, the same is perverse.

25. In view of the above discussions the impugned order dated 21-1-99, imposing penalty of withholding of two increments with cumulative effect is bad in law and the same is liable to be set aside.

26. Accordingly the penalty order dated 21-1-1999, imposing penalty of withholding two increments with cumulative effect upon workman Shri Bhule Ram is set aside and the workman shall be entitled to all consequential benefits.

27. Award as above.

AWARD

Passed on this 24th day of December, 2008

1. The Government of India, Ministry of Labour vide its Notification No. L-22012/453/94-IR (C-II) dated 23-4-97 has referred the following dispute for adjudication by this tribunal :—

“Whether the action of the management of Chachai & Rungta Group of Mines of SECL in not regularising the services of 70 contract workers (list enclosed) is illegal and justified? If not, what relief are the workers entitled to and from which date?”

2. This reference has been initiated by the General Secretary, M.P. Koyla Mazdoor Sabha (HMS), PO South Jhagrakhand Colliery, Distt. Surguja MP on behalf of its members Shri Yogeshwar Prasad and 69 others.

3. The case of the Union/workmen in brief is as follows. That Shri Yogeshwar Prasad Mishra and 69 others as per list enclosed with the schedule of reference are working in the Chachai U.G. of Sohagpur Area of SECL. That SECL is a Govt. of India undertaking and all the shares of the company are being held by the Government of India. The Govt. of India has a total and absolute control over the company. It is a state under article-12 of the constitution of India. That Shri Yogeshwar Prasad Mishra and 69 others were engaged by the Sub Area Manager in Chachai and Amlai for prohibited nature of mining jobs. That the services of workers were utilized for mining jobs, hence they are said to be deployed in mine: For workmen who have been deployed in mines, the management is duly bound to prepare the documents under provisions of Mines Act, 1952:—

- (a) Form-B register in respect of each workmen under Sec. 48 of the Mines Act.
- (b) Attendance should be marked in Form-C, D or E as per the nature of deployment under sub-section(4) of Sec. 48 of the Mines Act.
- (c) Attendance should be marked by the statutory personnels, i.e. Register Keeper of the company, not by the so-called contractor (Circular No.537 - 646/JBP dated 1-2-85 of Director of Mines Safety)
- (d) Vocational training should be given to the workers under Rule-6 of Mines Vocational Training Rule.

The services of the workers under reference are utilised for the purpose of mining i.e. for the profit and business of the employer since 1990 at Chachai and Amlai. That the workers have been engaged in permanent and perennial nature of job as per Sec: 1(5)

Explanation of Contract Labour (R & A) Act, 1970
“Explanation. For the purpose of this sub-section, work performed in an establishment shall not be deemed to be of an intermittent nature”

- (i) if it was performed for more than one hundred and twenty days in the preceding twelve months, or
- (ii) if it is of a seasonal character and is performed for more than sixty days in a year.

Sec-25(B) of ID Act 1947 defines the term continuous service. The service conditions of the workers in coal mining industry is covered by the Central Coal Wage Board, 1967. After nationalisation of coal mines in 1973, the wage structure and service conditions of the coal mine workers are regulated through various National Coal wage Agreements between the management and various Central Trade Unions through the Joint Bipartite Committee for coal mining industry. These agreements were accepted by the Govt. of India and are binding on both the management and the workers. According to National Coal Wage Agreements, no contractor labour can be engaged in any coal mines in a regular/perennial nature of work according to clause 11.5.0 of NCWA-IV. That the workers were continuously working for years together and have completed 190/240 days attendance several time, i.e. in every year. These workers have worked under the direction, control and supervision of the officials of the management of Sohagpur Area. Hence there is an absolute employer-employee relationship between the management of Sohagpur Area and the workers. That the Govt. has given some relaxation in prohibited nature of work that the work is not prohibited one when cutting of stone drifts/faults which cannot be detected in advance and are of short duration upto six months. That before starting the work, a detailed survey was done by CMPDI. The management of Sohagpur Area misused the relaxation given by the Govt. by engaging contractor in cutting of stone drifts/faults which was detected in advance and the work was continued for many years. That the workers were deployed directly by the management. For the purpose of payment, they engaged a contractor and paid less wages. Hence the contractor is smoke screen and camouflage in the eye of law. For the Coal mining industry, every workman is entitled for NCWA wages, as minimum wages under M.W. Act is not applicable to them because the industry is not a scheduled one under the Act. The workers are therefore entitled atleast minimum wages of Cat. I as per NCWAs. It is very unfortunate that a Govt. undertaking like SECL which is a subsidiary of Coal India Limited indulged in unfair labour practices by denying the rightful wages and other benefits to their workmen engaged in perennial/regular and prohibited nature of work by projecting a contractor for making out the bills on his name for payment to the workmen. Being aggrieved with the attitude of the management, the workmen approached the legal authorities through the union for redressal of their grievances and as soon as the management has come to know that the workers have approached the legal authorities, terminated services of workers without observing the formalities of law. It is prayed by the Union/workmen that the Tribunal be pleased to hold these workers as regular employees of SECL with all consequential benefits right from the date of their engagement and to treat their services as continuous and spent on duty even after their impugned termination with all consequential benefits.

4. The case of the management in brief is as follows. The Union has raised the present dispute with a view to secure appointment to the claimant through back door. The management issued tender notice 2086 dated 27-11-89 for execution of the work mentioned therein. The contractor Shri A.P. Mishra was intimated about acceptance of his tender. Accordingly an agreement was executed by the management of SECL, Sohagpur area and the contractor. The said agreement was forwarded by the Dy. General Manager to the Dy. Chief Finance Manager. The management issued another tender notice No. 1507 dated 27-9-91 for execution of the work mentioned therein. The tender submitted by the contractor Shri A.P. Mishra was accepted. Consequently an agreement was executed between the management of SECL and the contractor. Against order WO No. 2584 dated 2-2-1991 the work should have been commenced on 12-11-1990 and completed on 11-5-1991. Thus the work contemplated as per W.O. No. 2584 dated 2-2-1991 was to be completed within a period of 6 months. As per Notification No. 2053 dated 2nd July 1988, driving of stone drifts and miscellaneous stone cutting in underground is not prohibited provided such work cannot be detected in advance and is of a short period say upto 6 months. For the subject work could not be detected in advance and was for a period less than six months. The drifting operation and the manpower deployment is dependant on the area of the drift. For a 3 metre drift (LxB), the deployment at any point of time on the drift face cannot be more than 3 to 4 persons keeping in view the working area available for them. In respect of contract No. 285 order is of  $52.6 + 30.1 = 112.8$  mts. The period of contract was for 5 months. The available number of days taken 25 per month x 5 month 125 days. Therefore, the progress of even two meters a day in 3 shifts could be 250 mts. Whereas the work load was of 112.8 mts. only. The reason for delay as can be seen from the documents are frequent breakdown of pumps and non-availability of the exact place for drift, which led to slow progress. The period of 6 months for completion of the drift would be deviated, but the engagement of manpower will not be more than 6 months or 150 days in a year to achieve the above progress of 231 mts. Therefore the extension of drifting work beyond 6 months in the event of failure to achieve the stipulated progress per day cannot be attributed to perennial nature of job as it is extended beyond six months. The appropriate Govt. is fully aware that survey can be done by CMPDI. It is also aware to the appropriate Govt. that even after survey, certain drifts/faults cannot be detected. Only after taking the said position into account the appropriate Govt. has provided an exceptional clause in the said notification. So far as Sec-25(F) of the I.D. Act is concerned, it is not applicable in the present case. That the said work awarded to the contractor was not of prohibited nature. It is submitted by the management that the case of Union has no merit.

5. Vide order dated 18-7-07, the case proceeded exparte against workmen/Union.

6. The management in order to prove their case filed affidavit of their witness Shri Shankar Nagachari, then working as Sub Area Manager, Amlai & Bangwar Sub Area of SECL, Sohagpur Area.

7. I have heard Shri A. K. shashi, Advocate for the management and perused the evidence on record.

8. The case of the management is fully established and proved from the uncontroverted and unchallenged affidavit of management's witness Shri Shankar Nagachari. Therefore the reference deserves to be decided in favour of the management and against the Union/workmen without any orders as to costs.

9. In view of the above, the reference is decided in favour of the management and against the Union/workmen without any orders as to costs holding that the action of the management of Chachai & Rungta Group of Mines of SECL in not regularising the services of 70 contract workers (list enclosed) is legal and justified and consequently the workmen are not entitled to any relief.

10. Let the copies of the award be sent to the Government of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment as per rules.

2. Vide order dated 19-9-07 passed on the ordersheet of this reference proceeding, the reference proceeded exparte against the workman. No statement of claim has been filed on behalf of workman.

3. The case of the management in brief is as follows. In the Form-B register of the management, the age of the workman is recorded as 8-5-1941. As per guidelines given in I.I.No. 37, the management in the year 1981 displayed the notice on the notice board stating therein the date of birth of each workman and it was specifically pointed out that any person having objection to submit their objection within 90 days. In the said notice, which was displayed for information of workers, the date of birth of the workman was shown as 8-5-41. The age of superannuation in coal mines is 60 years. The workman was issued notice of retirement informing that he would be retiring from service w.e.f. 2001. The workman has not submitted any document admissible under Sec. I.I. No. 37 and 76 with the management in support of his claim. The workman has never raised any objection during his entire service period as against the date of birth recorded in official record inspite of objection invited by the management in the year 1981. ...For the 2nd Party Workmen

AWARD

The Government of India in the Ministry of Labour, in exercise of Powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section 2(A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) have referred the following dispute for adjudication vide their Order No. L-42012/196/2003/IR(CM-II), dated 8-12-2004.

"Whether the demand of the workers (list enclosed) for reinstatement with full back wages in the establishment of Regional Research Laboratory, Bhubaneswar is legal and justified? If so, to what relief the workmen are entitled to?"

2. Claiming to have illegally been terminated by the Management the above noted disputants raised a joint Industrial Dispute against the erst-while Management of Regional Research Laboratory, Bhubaneswar resulting in the present reference. After the said reference was received one of the disputants Shri Akshaya Kumar Gochayat filed a claim statement on behalf of all contending that the disputants were engaged by the erst-while Management known as Regional Research Laboratory (in short RRL) during 1986 to 1996 to work as House Keeping staff through one self styled contractor Shri K.C. Gochayat and thereafter attached them to other succeeding contractors and then ultimately terminated them illegally to avoid their regularization.

3. The reference was originally against RRL, Bhubaneswar. After it was renamed in 2001 the erst-while name of the Management has here been substituted by its present name Institute of Minerals and Materials Technology (in short IMMT) Replying to the claim of the Union the Management filed his written statement questioning the maintainability of the reference as also the claim made by the Union. According to it the Management is a research oriented institute falling outside the definition of an Industry and as such the reference is not maintainable. It is further contended that earlier another Industrial Dispute was raised in respect of the self same disputants and many others for their regularization and therefore this reference is also otherwise not maintainable under the principles of res-judicata.

4. On the pleadings of the parties necessary issues were framed but due to non-taking of steps the Union was set exparte and the exparte evidence of the Management was recorded by examining one witness from the side of the Management.

ISSUES

1. Whether the reference is maintainable?
2. Whether the reference is hit by the principles of res-judicata?
3. Whether the establishment of Regional Research Laboratory, Bhubaneswar is an "Industry"?

4. Whether the disputants are workmen within the meaning of the term and whether they were employees of 1st Party-Management?
5. Whether the disputants were engaged by the Management through different sham contractors?
6. Whether the disputants have been terminated by the 1st Party-Management?
7. Whether the termination of the disputants was justified and if no to what relief the disputants are entitled to get?

FINDINGS

ISSUE No. 1 to 3

5. From the evidence of Management Witness and documents like Ext.-1 and 2 it appears that originally there were five Regional Research Laboratories (RRL) functioning in different parts of the country under the administrative control of Council of Scientific & Industrial Research (CSIR) located at New Delhi. As per the office memorandum dated 6-3-2007 (Ext.-1) of CSIR all the RRLs were renamed differently and as such the erst-while Management of RRL, Bhubaneswar is now known as IMMT.

6. From the other documents filed by the Management it appears that, earlier one Industrial Dispute was raised by these disputants and many others through their Union Regional Research Laboratory Workers Union claiming their regularization and on reference it was registered as I.D. Case No. 148/2001 before this Tribunal. The Award passed in that case on 30-7-2001 vide Ext.-3 shows that the said dispute for regularization was in respect of all those who were engaged in different nature of work allegedly through some sham contractors. In that case the question whether the Management was an Industry or not was considered. Besides, the question relating to the status of all those who were allegedly engaged through such sham contractor was also the subject matter for consideration.

7. Under the present terms of reference, the question whether the disputants are entitled to be reinstated has been sought for adjudication. To answer such a question is absolutely necessary to examine before hand under what circumstance and by whom they were terminated. But not even an iota of evidence is available from the side of the disputants to throw any light on that aspect to come to a conclusion that there was relationship of employer and employee between the Management and disputants and that the Management was guilty of terminating them. On the other-hand, from the earlier award marked as Ext.-3 it is crystal clear that the various persons working under the erst-while Management were all contract labourers and there was no employee and employer relation between them and the said Management. Basing on various judicial pronouncement it has further been held in that award that the Management is not an Industry within the meaning of the term as defined under the Industrial Disputes Act and therefore both under the principles of res-judicata and constructive res-judicata as also on fact and legal interpretation of the term "Industry" for which a findings has already been given in the above noted I.D. Case No. 148/2001, it is hold that the present reference is not maintainable at all.

ISSUE No. 4 to 7

8. In view of the above findings as recorded under Issue No. 1 to 3 there remains no scope for the Tribunal to answer Issue No. 4 to 7.

9. Accordingly the reference is answered exparte against the disputants with no relief to them.

AWARD

The Government of India in the Ministry of Labour, in exercise of powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section 2(A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) have referred the following disputes for adjudication vide their Order No. L-22012/263/2002-IR(CM-II), dated 8-8-2003.

"Whether the action of the Management of MCL in relation to their Deulabera Colliery, Talcher Area in removing from service Shri Narasingha Biswal, Ex-Loader with effect from 26-2-2001 is legal and justified and proportionate to the charges levelled against? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?"

2. Shri Narasingha Biswal, a Loader B.C.P.I. of Deulabera Colliery of the Management-Company was charge-sheeted on 7-8-2000 for unauthorized absence from duty from 1-10-1997 onwards. After receipt of a reply on 8-8-2000 from the workman the Management not being satisfied with the same appointed an Enquiry Officer and on the basis of his report terminated him from service after a second show cause in its order dated 26-2-2001.

Challenging the above termination, the Union of the workman raised an Industrial Dispute before the Asst. Labour Commissioner (Central) culminating the same in the present reference.

3. It is alleged by the Union in its claim statement that in the month of October 1997 the workman remained under the medical treatment of Dr. K.C. Biswal, Professor & Head of the Deptt. of Cardio Thoracic Vascular Surgery of S.C.B. Medical College, Cuttack. During such treatment he sent intimations about his treatment through "Postal Certificate of Posting" but it were never considered by the Management even though the copies of the same were produced before the Enquiry Officer. According to the Union after the workman was declared fit by the concerned treating physician he approached Management on 23-11-1998 to join in his duty. But he was not allowed to do so even though the local Deputy Chief Medical Officer (In-charge) of Deulabera/Lingaraj Hospital of the Management-Company found him fit to resume duty and a recommendation was made accordingly by the Manager, Deulabera Colliery to allow him to join in his former post. On the other hand he was referred to the Medical Board since the absence period was for more than 6 months. The workman appeared before the Board on 5-4-2000 and having come to know from a reliable source that he was going to be declared fit, he again approached the Management with a request for his re-engagement. But instead of allowing him to join he was issued with a charge-sheet on 7-8-2000 resulting a departmental enquiry.

4. As regards the propriety of the enquiry it is alleged by the Union that in the enquiry the workman participated taking the help of the Union. But his above narrated facts were never considered by the Enquiry Officer inasmuch as the various intimation he had sent to the Management through certificate of posting intimating his ill health and the fact of his undergoing medical treatment under a specialist of the S.C.B. Medical College were not given due weightage while submitting the enquiry report. Further it is alleged that after the enquiry was closed he was issued with a modified charge-sheet changing the alleged absentee period from 1-10-1997 onwards to 31-10-1997 onwards and no fresh opportunity was provided to him to meet the above change and as such the enquiry report and the consequential punishment is liable to be vitiated.

5. The 1st Party-Management on the other hand alleged that the disputant-workman was in the habit of remaining absent unauthorizedly ever since his joining. During the year 1997 he remains absent for 287 days and for 305 days in 1998 and in the year 1999. Thereafter when the workman again remained absent unauthorizedly without any intimation or without any sanction of leave from 1-1-1997 onwards, (which was subsequently corrected from 31-10-1997 by way of corrigendum during enquiry) for about a year he was charge-sheeted on the aforesaid grounds on 7-8-2000 asking him to give his show cause. It is further averred by the Management that the show cause given by the workman on 8-8-2000 not being satisfactory, an enquiry officer was appointed and the matter was enquired into by providing full opportunities to the workman to defend himself and that ultimately he was removed from service after a second show cause notice being issued to him. As regards the various allegations made by the Union it is further contended by the Management that having remained absent continuously for about a year the workman appeared on 23-11-1998 with a fitness certificate obtained from a Doctor of S.C.B. Medical College and wanted to join in duty. But as the absentee period was more than one year he was not allowed to join forthwith as per the Standing Order but on the other hand he was referred to appear before a medical board which he did not do. On receipt of another such intimation he no doubt appeared before the medical board and was found fit but on that basis he could not be allowed to join in his post as in such cases, where the period of absence is more than one year, prior permission of the highest authority was needed.

6. As regards the propriety of the enquiry it is contended by the Management that during enquiry the workman was provided with full opportunities to participate and accordingly he was allowed to be assisted by an office bearer of the Union and as such no illegalities or irregularities has been committed by the enquiry officer violating any of the principles of natural justice. The misconduct committed by the workman being serious, the disciplinary authority, having considered the report of the enquiry officer together with the reply of the workman given in response to the second show cause notice, was pleased to pass the final order and as such no illegality was committed. As regards the production of certain documents by the disputant during enquiry and non-appreciation of the same by the enquiring officer it is contended by the Management that, since the workman was never referred to S.C.B. Medical College, the fitness certificate which he produced having obtained from a Doctor of that Medical College was kept outside the purview of consideration. So much so the copies of his so-called letters which he alleged to have had sent to the Management by certificate of posting were not considered both by the enquiry officer and the disciplinary authority as no such letter was ever received by the Management before the charge-sheet was issued. In the above premises it is claimed by the Management that the punishment given to the workman was just, proper, fair and in accordance with the principles of natural justice.

7. In view of the above pleadings of the parties the following issues were framed :

ISSUES

1. Whether the reference is maintainable?
2. Whether the departmental enquiry held against the workman was fairly conducted with due regard to the principles of natural justice?
3. Whether the action of the Management in removing the workman from service is justified and proportionate to the charges?
4. If not, to what relief he is entitled to?

8. To establish that the enquiry was fairly conducted the Management adduced evidence by examining the enquiry officer and the presenting officer and filed documents marked Ext-1 to Ext.-7. On the other hand the workman in an alike manner examined himself besides producing several documents marked Ext.-A to Ext.-J.

FINDINGS

ISSUE NO. I

9. Admittedly the workman has been removed from service by the Management while he was working as a Loader. As such, in the absence of any evidence contrary to the same, it is held that the reference is maintainable. Accordingly this issue is answered.

ISSUE NO. II

10. Under this issue it has simply been averred and deposed by the workman that he had remained absent from duty from October 1997 for his treatment under Dr. K.C. Biswal, Professor & Head of the Deptt Cardio Thoracic and Vascular Surgery of SCB Medical College, Cuttack. It is further deposed by the workman that when the said Doctor declared him fit he came to join with a medical fitness certificate (Ext-A), dated 23-11-1998 but he was not allowed to do so even though the Dy. C.M.O of the company had declared, him fit by endorsing a certificate on the body of said certificate. Rather on the other hand he was issued with a charge-sheet long thereafter on 7-8-2000 and then was removed from service on the report of the enquiry officer. As regards the manner in which the enquiry was conducted the workman did not say that he was not provided with necessary opportunities to defend himself. But his main grievance is that the various letters which he had sent to the Management by certificate of posting in respect of his ill health were neither considered by the Management before initiating the proceeding nor the same were considered by the enquiry officer when such letters were produced before him during enquiry. It is further contended that after the closure of the enquiry the Management issued a corrigendum correcting the date 1-10-1997, in to 31-10-1997 in the charge-sheet but he was not provided with a fresh opportunity to have his say on such correction and as such the final order passed by the disciplinary authority is liable to be vitiated.

11. As regards the first contention, the fitness certificate granted by Professor and Head of the Deptt. of Cardio Thoracic Vascular Surgery of SCB Medical College (Ext.-A) and the various endorsements made thereon by the Officer of the company show that he had reported for duty on 27-11-1998 and on 7-12-1998 the Dy. C.M.O (I/C) of Lingaraj Hospital of the Management had found him fit and thereafter he was referred to the Medical Board but was not allowed to join. The circular of the Management dated 9-5-2006 which the Union has filed along with his written argument speaks that if the employee is found fit by the company medical officer the competent authority will allow him to duty pending enquiry if any. It further shows that if the absence period is up to one month the Project Officer/Sub-Area Manager is to allow him to such duty and if the absence period is up to six months the CGM/GM is to allow him to duty and if the absence period is for more than six months the MCL Headquarters is to pass an order allowing the employee to join.

12. Therefore, when admittedly the workman had reported for duty after remaining absent from work for about a year, he should not have been allowed to join forthwith on the basis of the fitness certificate he had obtained from a Doctor to whom he was never referred. Therefore, the Management can not be held guilty for not allowing the workman to join on the basis of such certificate.

13. The evidence of both parties show undoubtedly that the above mentioned corrigendum making correction of a date in the charge-sheet was issued almost at the closing stage of the enquiry. In the first charge-sheet the workman was allegedly shown absent from 1-10-1997 which in the corrigendum was corrected to 31-10-1997. This correction appears to have been made due to typographical error in the original charge-sheet as contended by the Management. In as much as the workman in his reply to the charge-sheet has also admitted that he remained absent from 1st of Nov. 1997. Therefore for not providing another opportunity to the workman to have his say on such corrigendum no illegality seems have been committed by the Management nor it can be said that the same amounts to violation of natural justice.

14. Next as regards the main aspect of the case under consideration, it is worth mentioning that the documents produce by the workman do not show that he had applied for leave as per rule before or soon after he intended to remain absent from duty. His so-called letters dated 3-4-1998 (Ext.-B) and letter dated 6-10-1998 (Ext.-C) and their connected postal receipts though shows that the letters were sent by certificate of posting (which the Management denies to have received), the same are of little consequence to help the case of the workman, sending of such letters through certificate of posting not being the recognized mode of official communication. Besides, even if it is accepted as such, its contents are such that it can not be taken as leave applications, there being no prayer for leave at all in any of these letters.

15. It was argued by the Management with reference to the certificated Standing Order of the Management-Company that before availing leave one has to apply for the same before hand and in exceptional circumstances it can be applied later with in a reasonable time. In his reply to the charge-sheet the workman admits to have had remained absent from duty from 1-12-1997. He does not say to have applied for leave before or after such date. His so-called letters marked as Ext.-B & C which he claims to have had sent to the Management, one about five months latter and another about 11 months latter, also do not partake the character of leave application, leading to the conclusion that the workman had remained absent without asking for leave.

16. It was argued on behalf of the workman with reference to his documents that during the absence period he was under the treatment of Dr. K.C. Biswal, Professor & Head of the Department of Cardio Thoracic surgery of S.C.B. Medical College, Cuttack. But the fitness certificate (Ext.-A) granted by that Doctor does not show that he was an indoor patient during the entire period from 1-11-1997 to 22-11-1998. More so, when as per the Management-Company's rule he was never referred for his specialized treatment in S.C.B. Medical College & Hospital, a certificate granted by a Doctor of that College & Hospital in his personal capacity simply gives an impression that the same has been obtained by the workman to stage-manage his case. In view of the above discussion, especially when the workman has admitted that he was given full opportunity to defend himself before the enquiry officer, I find no ground to declare the findings of the enquiry officer perverse or mala fide.

ISSUE NO. III & IV

17. Now coming to the order of punishment, the law is well settled that the Tribunal's jurisdiction to interfere in such matter is very very limited. It is only when the enquiry officer violates the principles of natural justice or any mandatory provisions of law, judicial review is permissible. The court has to be slow in scrutinizing the appreciation of the evidence by the enquiry officer, unless the intervention is absolutely necessary on the ground that there was no material or that there was any perversity in the findings.

Since in the instant case no instances of perversity or violation of law or Rules is noticed to have taken place, I find no justification to interfere in the punishment given to the disputant.

18. Under the standing order of the Management-Company an employee before availing leave is to apply for the same before hand and in some exceptional circumstance he is required to apply for leave some times later. But the evidence of the workman clearly indicates that he had remained absent without any leave application and that about one year later he had appeared with a fitness certificate granted by a Doctor of the S.C.B. Medical College, Cuttack to whom he was never referred by the Management in accordance with the standing order or circulars issued thereon. Since such type of unhealthy practice of obtaining fitness certificate on private capacity from a Doctor commonly resorted to by many to put dust in the eye of law, the same is not only to be ignored for consideration but the perpetrator is to be dealt with severely to avoid repetition of the same by other employees. The case in hand being of similar in nature I find no justification to interfere in the order of punishment given to the disputant.

19. The reference is answered accordingly.
